PRACTICAL STEPS TO FIGHT THE

JEW

VS

As soon as the Jewish statelet is exposed to an attack or a potential danger, the allies of the Jews rush to provide their comprehensive and unlimited support. This is neither new nor surprising, even if it comes more intense this time, as was clearly demonstrated in the speeches of American leaders that were filled with unprecedented threats and incitement against Gaza and everyone in it! These Crusader-Jewish speeches were quickly translated into a massive campaign of barbaric bombing, throwing Gaza into an unprecedented spiral of pain, massacres, and body parts. To Allah we turn for help.

Every time confrontation with the Jews is renewed in the Palestinian arena, conversations about practical steps to fight the Jewish statelet, and ways to support Palestine escalate, especially from those outside it. Many parties act without presenting a comprehensive Shari'ah vision that could be considered a process or a practical way to achieve the divine promise of abolishing the Jewish statelet, while the Palestinian scene remains the same. They act in the shadows of the prevailing illusion that it is possible to achieve this divine promise by fighting under the banner of the Iranian axis, which itself is hostile to the divine method! Or they act by engaging in national or pan-national alliances that fundamentally neglect the legitimate purpose of fighting. They act in the shadows of emphasis that the battle and hostility with the Jews is confined within Palestine and they have nothing to do with fighting the Jews outside it.

In accordance with Shari'ah and practically, limiting ourselves to fighting the Jews of Palestine, no matter how spiteful they may be, is not enough to achieve the elimination of the Jews, because from the beginning the construction of the Jewish statelet relied upon and depended on a chain of people. Throughout history, the Jews only advanced by relying on other parties who, through deception, they exploited to serve them. They established their statelet initially by leaning on Britain, then taking refuge in America, and finally by subjugating murtadd governments.

Indeed, anyone who reflects upon them, will find that the speeches and positions of the American leaders who lament the Jewish blood, whether Republicans or Democrats, are the same; he realizes the extent of Jewish control over American and European decision-making circles, and the extent of the pressure exerted on them by Jewish pressure groups that live and breed in the neighborhoods of America and Europe, controlling the joints of the economy, trade, and Western media, and interfering in drawing up the policies of these countries and tie up the ropes of deception in a way that ensures the preservation of Jewish interests. The same is the case when it comes to the murtadd Arab governments and armies, which are also part of the ropes of Jewish deception that strangle the populous to keep them away from threatening the interests of the Jews or attacking their statelet, which explains why the Jews are desperate to "normalize" their relations with these murtadd governments.

Based on these introductions and legal, historical and factual data, it is abundantly clear to us that the practical way to confront the Jewish statelet in preparation for its elimination can only be achieved by striking all of these components, alliances and all those involved in them, who together form fortresses, walls and ropes that protect the Jews and perpetuate their power and control over Palestine.

Accordingly, this is a warning and incitement to Muslims everywhere that in front of them lays a plan to participate in fighting the Jewish statelet and rid the Muslims of its evils. This plan is represented by a serious and rapid field effort to target the Jewish presence in the entire world, whatever is the form of this presence, especially the Jewish neighborhoods, in America and Europe, which constitute the backbone of the Jewish economy and the hotbeds of control in Western Crusader decisionmaking circles supporting the Jewish statelet. It is necessary to target and attack Jewish and Crusader embassies everywhere.

Simultaneously, it is necessary to target the defense lines and walls that provide cover for the Jewish statelet, represented by the murtadd Arab armies and governments, specifically the armies of the "ring states" that encircle and strangle Palestine, as well as to target the rear lines of defense, such as the armies of the Gulf states that host the American bases which support the security of the Jewish statelet. All of these parties, that include kuffar and riddah, Arabs and non-Arabs, are a rope for the Jewish statelet, the severance of which will ensure the extraction of their statelet by the roots.

This is the Shari'ah based practical and realistic path to fighting the Jews and fulfilling Allah's promise of the elimination of their statelet. It also includes real, actionable support for our Muslim people in Palestine. This is the path that the Islamic State took by fighting all these kaffir axes, governments, and armies, and it is still on its way, about to reach its goal, Allah willing. In light of the sharp changes and turns taking place in the region, which do not deviate from the plan of Allah Almighty and His plan for His worshipers on the ground, and in light of the talk about the possibility of the small, short "sector" being exposed to a Jewish ground incursion, whether at this stage or elsewhere; The first thing to do in order to confront it is to prepare on the basis of iman, dedicating Tawhid to Allah Almighty, purifying the banner from the American "international rules and laws", and fighting for the arbitration of Islamic Shari'ah within the framework of Tawhid, and not within what is originally and primarily based upon a Jewish framework.

If this premise of preparation with iman is firmly adopted, then young Muslims there must prepare themselves and be equipped with whatever military equipment is available to them, but especially with the explosive belts that have been absent from the arena of confrontations with the Jews. These blessed belts are a distinguishing mark between the fighting guaranteed by international laws and the fighting guaranteed by divine Shari'ah. We ask Allah Almighty to inflame the blood of our people in Palestine, and to spare them the evils of the Jews and the Crusaders.

In conclusion, the Jews have walls and ropes that they rely on and fight behind to preserve their crumbling statelet. There is no way to bring down the Jewish statelet without bringing down these walls and cutting these ropes, until the Jews reach the point where they find nothing to take refuge in and hide behind except stones and trees, then the Jews will realize that they have not lived through the "Holocaust" yet!

POISON

ADAM

'Alayhissalam

IBLEES

Have we ever thought about what Allah Subhanahu wa Ta'ala wants from us? Does Allah actually expect that every one of His servants will observe His Din perfectly? 100 out of 100 will perform every obligation of the religion and will never indulge in His prohibition? Does Allah Subhanahu wa Ta'ala want to create a perfectionist Ummah? Is perfectionism expected by Allah Subhanahu wa Ta'ala from his servants? Actually, Allah Subhanahu wa Ta'ala knows best what He expects from us. But our reasoning is for the ease of understanding only.

Let's get back to the very occasion of the creation of man. Back then, there were already angels, who can never commit sins; they can never be disobedient to Allah. Allah Azzawajjal also created the jinn; one of its members, Iblis, had been worshiping Allah for millions of years. So anyway, Allah Subhanahu wa Ta'ala decided to create man. When He Azzawajjal revealed His intention to the angels, they said that they were there to worship Allah. Men would commit sins, spread corruption upon the earth, do bloodshed, would not be worship Allah properly, and would not obey Allah completely. In response, Allah Subhanahu wa Ta'ala said to them, {Indeed, what I know, you do not know}

However, let's see what Adam (as) did that the jinn did not. What distinguishing quality does Adam have that no other creation ever had? Why did Allah give Adam (as) so much dignity? Alhamdulillah.

Let's go back to the past:

After creating Adam (as), Allah the Exalted commanded all the angels and Iblis to prostrate in honor of him. As usual, the angels obeyed the instructions immediately. But the ego of Iblees did not let him prostrate. What is the reason? Because Adam was made of clay, and Iblees was made of fire. That hurts his honor, being made of fire, to show respect to a creature made of clay, thinking that he is more dignified an entity.

However, when Allah the Exalted asked Iblis why he would not prostrate to Adam, Iblis put forth a faulty argument. And disobeying Allah's command turned Iblees into a dead pan from his honorable position among the angels.

Notably, Iblis did not refuse to prostrate to Allah, but he refused to prostrate to Adam.

Anyway, now it's Adam's turn. Let's see what Adam (as) did:

Adam (as) was commanded by Allah Azzawajjal to reside in Paradise peacefully, but not even to go near a tree. Hawa (as) was his wife. But anyway, Adam (as) was tempted and ate the fruit of that tree.

Because of this mistake, Allah the Almighty held Adam (as) accountable in the same way He Azzawajjal held Iblis accountable. But the response of Adam and Eve was the opposite. See how our forefather Adam (as) responded,

{O our Lord. We made a mistake. If you do not forgive us and have mercy on us, we will surely be among the losers} [Surah al-A'raf: 23]

Now match the response of Iblis with this. When Allah asked Iblis why he did not prostrate to Adam, he replied, "I am better than him. You created me from fire and him from clay." Astaghfirullah. See the clear difference. Could not Iblis say, "O my Lord, I have made a mistake, so forgive me!"

Did Iblis not know that Allah is the Lord of the whole world? Did he not know that Allah is the King of all kings? Allah is Mighty, Allah is the Glorious. He is the Creator, He is the owner?

But Iblis placed his own reasoning above the command of Allah Subhanahu wa Ta'ala. And even after violating the order, without being ashamed of it, he started arguing with the Lord of the worlds; If a creature is made of clay, the status will be lower, and if it is made of fire, the status will be higher, who taught him this? In fact, what entered into Iblis was pride and haughtiness. Feelings of superiority deviated him and made him the ousted one.

On the other hand, what did Adam (as) do?

He did not say,

"I was so greedy after seeing the fruit, I couldn't handle it. I ate it, so there is wrong in it;

Actually, I didn't want to eat, but I fell under the temptation of Iblis, so I ate it;

It's all the Hawa's (as) fault, because of her, I've eaten it." ... Was there any shortage of excuses for him to put forth?

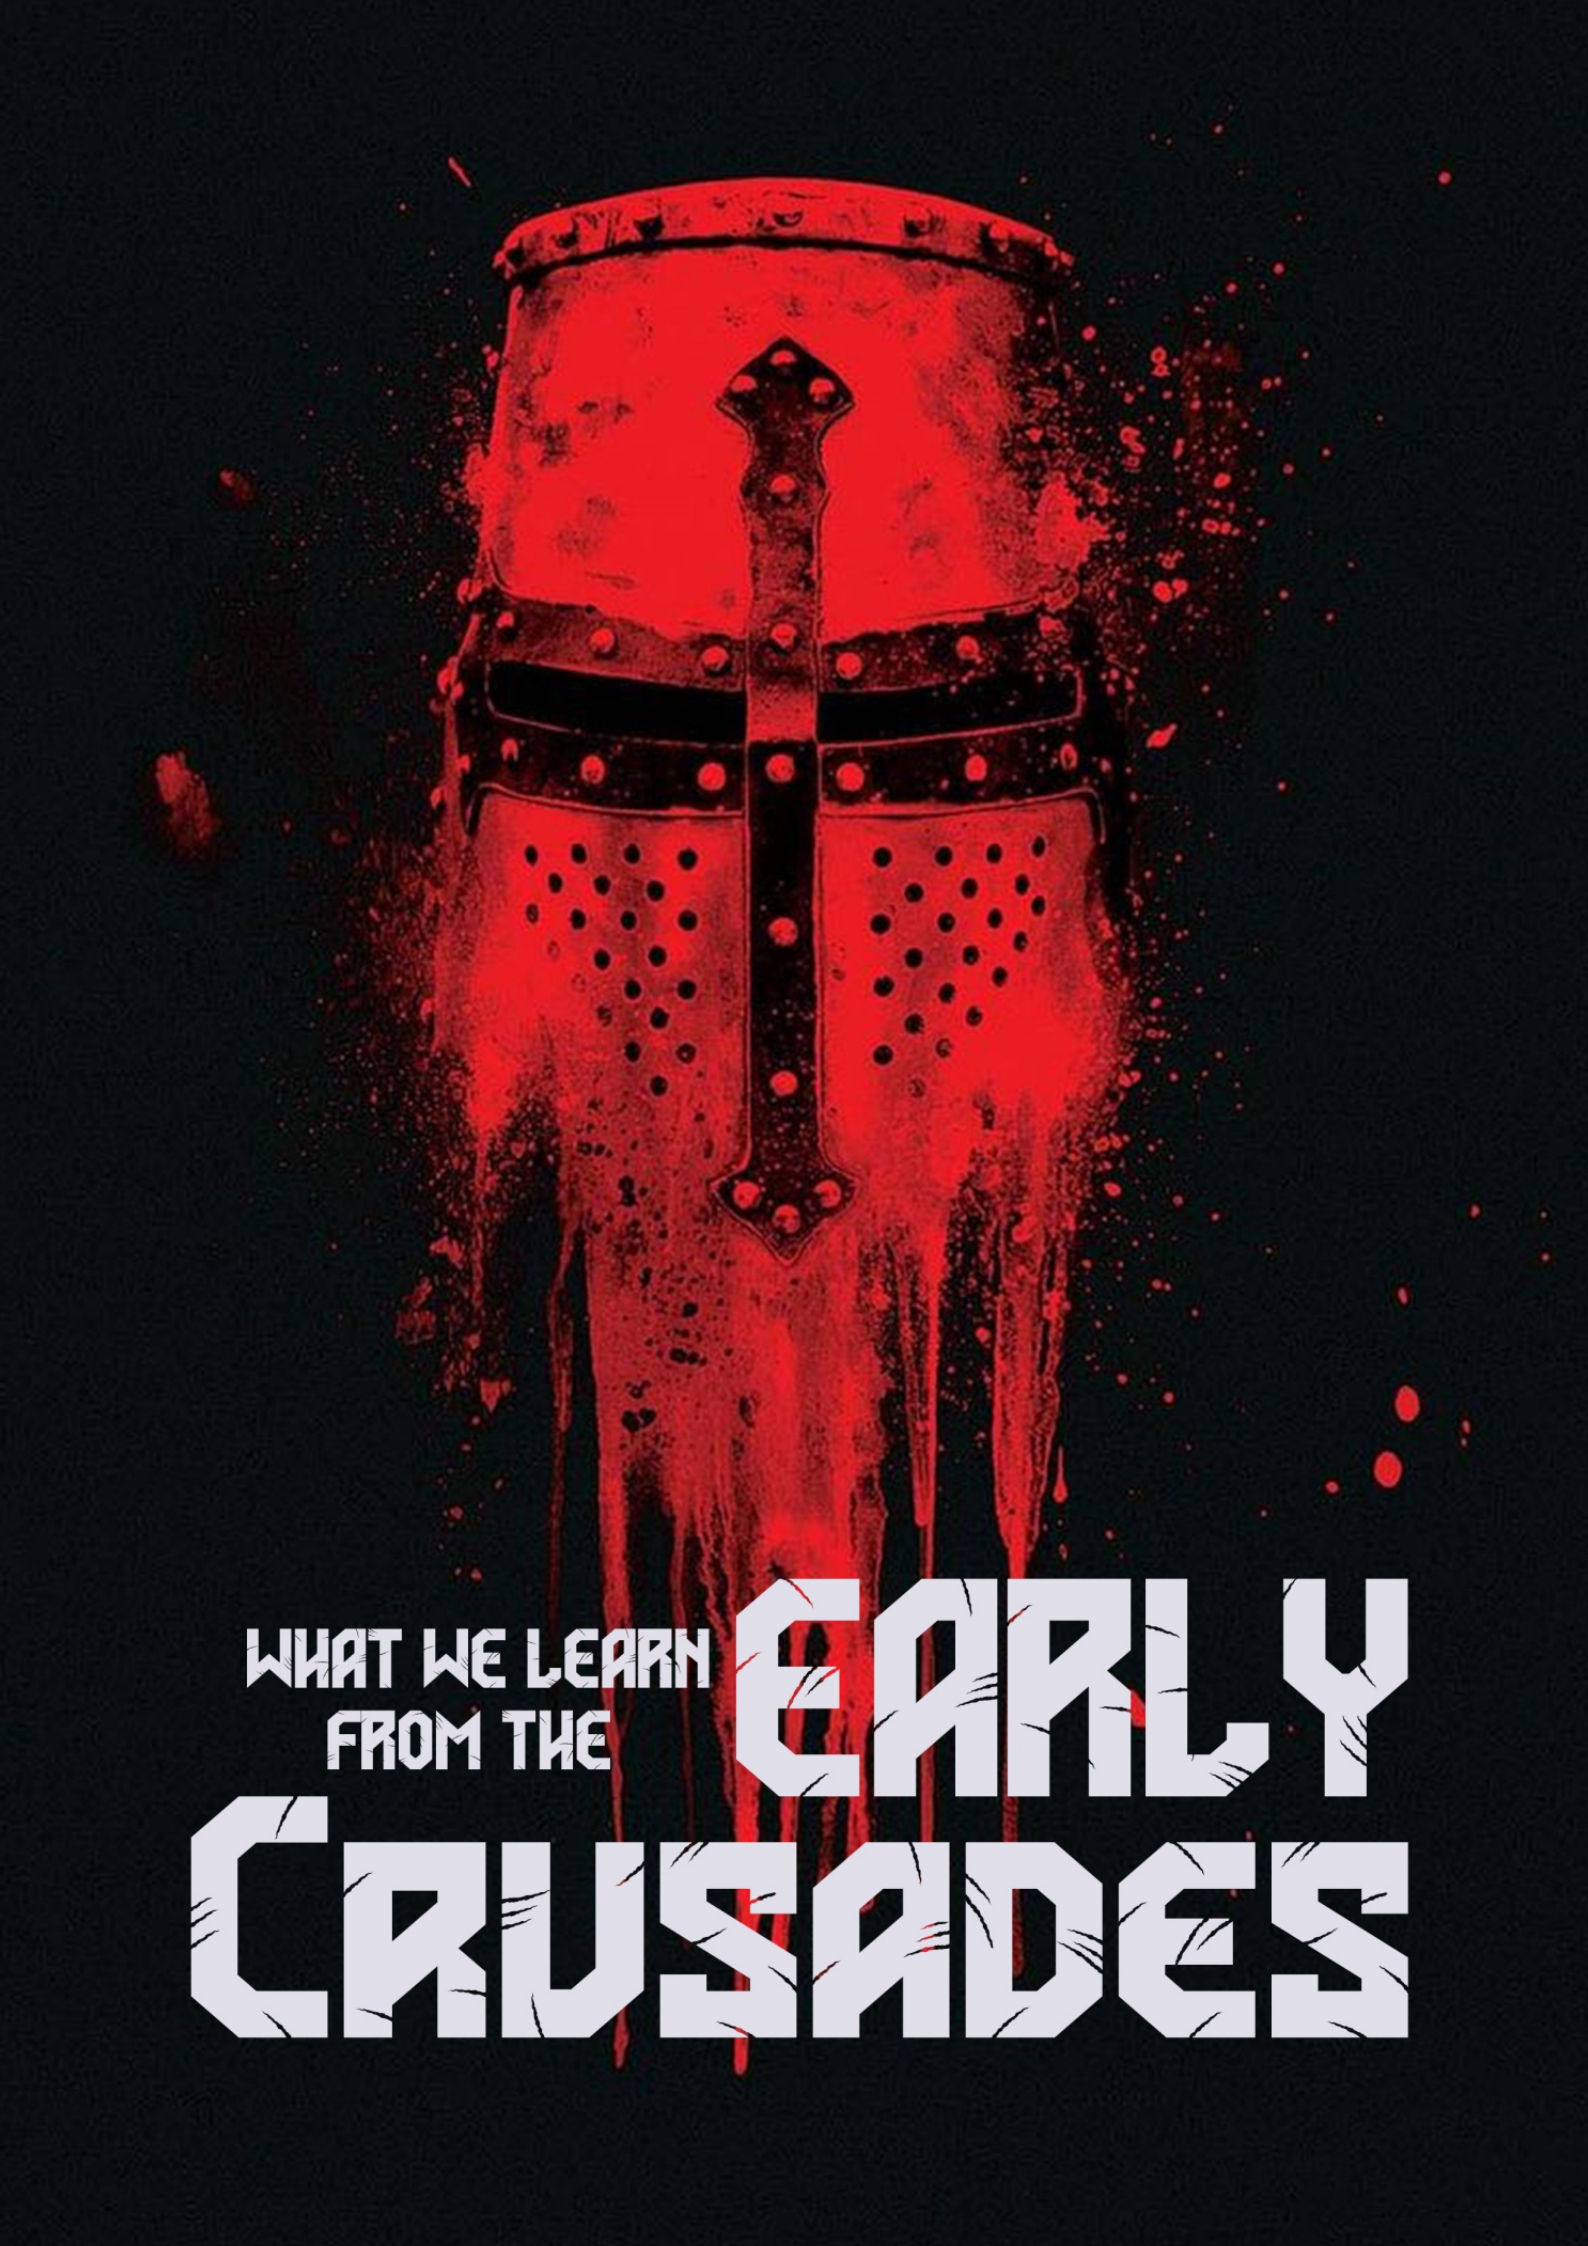

But no, Adam (as) directly took the blame upon himself. He did not put the blame of the shortcoming on anyone else, but on him only.

Even, he (as) sought forgiveness of Allah, using the word 'we', including with Hawa (as) with him, while apologizing, so that both of them would receive forgiveness together. Although he could have said 'I' and could have excluded Hawa from it, but he didn't do that.

*That is the excellence of our father!
And that is the excellence due to being made of clay. And Allah is Predominant over His affairs, although most of the people know not.*

WHAT WE LEARN FROM THE

EARLY CRUSADES

In today's world everyone including many devoted Muslims are afraid to even utter the word jihad. The West has put forward enormous efforts of labelling jihad as terrorism while Crusade is being celebrated universally in form of literature, movies, video games, etc. Now jihad is going through an identity crisis and has been ridiculed and bullied by the so called western and modern system, and the reason behind such humiliation is that we are not being true to our religious obligation of jihad. It's an age of darkness when the countries of the Muslims salivate over the friendship with kuffar and Tawagheet for their support and international recognition.

TERRORISM

Jihad in Islam implies striving for the Cause of Allah. It is obligatory for Muslims to raise their voice and fight against kufr, shirk, injustice, corruption, and oppression committed against Muslims, and this is possible only when we are spiritually, mentally, and physically prepared and strong. Unfortunately, also during the first Crusade, the Islamic Ummah were deeply divided, and although in terms of wealth, resources, and education we were far ahead of the kuffar but we became too attached to comfort and luxury, and lacked physical activities and concrete preparation for Jihad. Prophet Muhammad ﷺ encouraged maintaining physical fitness by body exercising and brisk walking. Moreover, he ﷺ insisted in doing exercise for the sake of Allah for maintaining good health and most importantly for staying prepared for Jihad in any time:

{And prepare against them whatever you are able of power and of steeds of war by which you may terrify the enemy of Allah and your enemy}

[Al-Anfal: 60]

So, it is a lesson that we should never forget that our Ummah should always remain prepared and be ready with physical strength because that is a necessary instrument to strike fear and terrify our enemies. Unfortunately, during the first Crusade we paid a terrible price due to internal division and unpreparedness.

Crusade is a series of wars waged between Christian Europeans and Muslims that took place between 1096 to 1272. Although we hear about Crusade quite commonly especially in the books of history, however it has been wrongly portrayed by the western media as Christianity's war to take back their so-called holy land. Christian Europeans propagated the whole situation to be a divine order by God and this was triggered by the evil Pope Urban II who passionately encouraged everyone in Europe to an armed pilgrimage to Jerusalem. The intention behind this propaganda was not holy but it was rather motivated by greed and jealousy, and in reality, the barbaric savages of the west were extremely jealous of the Islamic world because clearly Islam and Muslim civilization was far more superior in terms of justice, economy, education, culture and innovation.

“Prepare as you might to build the strength of war, know it the strength of the war lies in the archers, know that the strength of the war lies in the archers, know that the strength of the war lies in the archers.” [Muslim, Kitāb al-Imārah, Hadith no.: 167: 1225)

The West always pretends to be the flag bearer of creativity, scientific discoveries, philosophy, literature, art, and freedom of expression, but in reality, they are just thieves and are the perfect example of bunch of insidious treacherous civilization lacking any legit moral values and identity. Now you might often hear the West itself referring its middle ages to be the dark ages due to lack of moral advancement, but in reality, from the very beginning of history, they had been mainly focusing on indulging in various forms of sinful pleasurable intoxication such as alcohol, orgies, snuff-boxes, etc. The people of the west including kings were barbaric savages and they didn't even know how to write their own names whereas in the Islamic world it was difficult even to find a peasant who couldn't read and write.

The only time the West saw a beam of hope and enlightenment was because of the so-called renaissance, and naturally the Europeans are proud of their achievement because this marked the end of their dark ages and they welcomed creation of new scientific fields through chemistry, algebra and also through philosophy, literature, music, etc. However, what the West so casually forget to mention is every manuscript that paved the way for European renaissance were translated from Arabic from the work of the those living in the Islamic world. Worst of all is that they never mentioned the atrocities and manipulation caused by them during that age. Christianity never inspired the spirit of learning, rather they stole and suppressed it. In the pre-Islamic time, they vandalized the Library of Alexandria, and they continued the legacy of barbarism and ignorance, as by evil Pope Gregory's instruction, Crusaders burned library of Palestine and that of Tripoli. And did the same in Andalusia, where Ferdinand and Isabella put all Muslims works to flames, and they did not only destroyed libraries, but they also gathered all important books and misused for materializing their evil objectives. Apparently, education, science, and invention randomly flourished, but all their socio-economic achievements are stained with Islamic blood and ashes.

The recruitment for the first Crusade was a peculiar phenomenon because it consisted of drunkard undisciplined savages who were annihilated by the Turks without any effort. After this failure Raymond of Toulouse, Godfrey of Bouillon, Robert of Flanders and Bohemond of Otranto joined forces together and prepared 4000 knights and 25000 infantry. These kings came together only because the Pope was able to show them that conquering Jerusalem will eradicate their poverty and increase their living standards. This proves that their entire cause was motivated by materialism, and their cause was built on a shallow foundation.

Furthermore, throughout the era of Crusade, it has been proven by the West that their own religion is nothing more than a business deal, and they do not really care about the religious values. In their new Testament itself in Matthew 22:37-39, it is stated that "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy soul and with all thy mind and thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." The Crusaders defiled the sanctity of their own religion not just by killing Muslims, but also by killing their own Christians brothers and sisters just to gain more authority, power and lands. This clearly shows that the only religion that the west worship is wealth and greed. Whereas in Islam, Jerusalem is considered sacred for many reasons. Jerusalem is the land where Prophet Ibrahim, 'Alayhis Salam, was first ordered by Allah to build the Al-Aqsa mosque, and at the beginning Muslims faced the direction of Al-Aqsa during prayers, so Jerusalem was considered as the first Qibla of the Muslims. Jerusalem is also the birth place of Prophet Sulaiman, 'Alayhis salam, and therein the blessing of the ability to speak with jinn and animals was bestowed upon him by Allah. Furthermore and most importantly, from Baytul Maqdis of Jerusalem, Prophet Muhammad miraculously ascended to heaven for his sacred appointment with Allah the Exalted. It was during this appointment that Allah Azzawajjal commanded 5 times daily prayer which is regarded as one of the most important pillars of Islam. So, undoubtedly, we, the Muslims, are the only rightful claimants of this Holy city.

After a few failures, the Crusaders witnessed some success, they were able to defeat the army of Seljuk Turks in Dorylaeum, then slowly but steadily they were able to take over more lands. However, despite the attacks by the Crusaders, they would have failed terribly and the only reason they succeeded was because Bohemond bribed a Turkish traitor to open Antioch's bridge gate at night and the entire city was swarmed by Christian army, and in that horrible night, thousands of Muslims and civilians were massacred brutally, and this marked an artful victory by the Crusaders, when the city's fortified citadel was taken from the Muslims.

Despite gathering swarms of soldiers under their wing, the West would never be able to enter the Muslim world. War is the favorite game of the infidel West, and the only way they know how to play this game is through their dirty and treacherous tactics. The Crusaders were stuck in difficult 6 months siege with the Turks.

During the first Crusade, the Crusaders killed Christians, Muslims, and Jews in Antioch & Jerusalem. But in Christianized Europe, nobility was ransomed. Let make one thing clear about Crusaders' victory, it was not because of any divine favor from God nor was it due to Crusaders strong and resolute soldiers, but the main reason for their victory was that the Muslims were constantly fighting against each other. Every strong community demands a healthy level of unity among members, unity creates strength and harmony, and it helps a community advance and also creates a strong shield and defense against outside enemies.

The holy Quran and the Sunnah urge Muslims all around the world to be together and work as a single Ummah. Throughout the life of Prophet Muhammad ﷺ commanded Muslims to function as a single body, that means we celebrate our victory being a single body and share each other's pain as a single body.

{And hold fast by the covenant of Allah all together and be not disunited, and remember the favor of Allah on you when you were enemies, then He united your hearts so by His favor you became brethren; and you were on the brink of a pit of fire}

[Ali 'Imran: 103]

Therefore, we as an Ummah are obligated to maintain our unity because that is the core of a healthy society and that is also considered as the backbone and soul of Islam. A society becomes a force to be reckon with when it solidifies its unity whereas unnecessary quarreling, jealousy, and discord will cause weakness and eventually destroy and poison the livelihood of any civilization.

In hadith it has been narrated:

“verily, the believers are like a structure, each part strengthening the other.” [Sahih al-Bukhari]

“None of you will have faith until he loves for his brother what he loves for himself.” [Sahih al-Bukhari]

Therefore, the success behind the first Crusade was due to the disunity within the Islamic world. Improvement and development in culture and science means nothing if the members within the community dislike each other. Moreover, throughout Islamic history it is evident that internal conflicts damaged substantially the soul of Islam, and this was exactly what happened during the first crusade. During that time Muslims leaders were in conflict with each other, and the ordinary Muslims had to pay the consequences of it by being overpowered by the Crusaders and by losing its hold on Jerusalem. Besides, Muslims during that time stopped giving effort to stay well prepared for jihad socially, physically and strategically.

Furthermore, after conquering Muslim territories in Jerusalem, Tripoli, Edessa and Antioch, the Crusaders were able to remain dominant there for many years because of the intense internal enmity of the Muslims in those regions. Back then leaders within the Muslim nation forgot about the teachings of our beloved Prophet ﷺ. Prophet Muhammad ﷺ told people to never be selfish and strive to become better Muslim, and he ﷺ reminded to help other brothers and sisters in faith, and whoever does otherwise is not a true Muslim.

Unfortunately and embarrassingly, during the first Crusade, the leaders of the Muslims (except of a few zealous ones) cared only about their own selfish power and authority. Later it took several decades for the Muslims to reunite again and conquer Jerusalem from Crusaders again. Another thing that should be taken into account is that right now in 2023 history of the first Crusade is repeating itself, all started with the illegal invasion of Iraq then it was followed by Arab spring in Syria, Yemen, Libya and Egypt where the West just stole resources and humiliated Islam in the name of their pathetic democracy, and now the repetition of the first Crusade has reached the peak with the Zionist invasion of Gaza and occupied West Bank of Palestine.

Although we are now going through a similar situation like the first Crusade, but there is a solution to every terrible situation for this Ummah, and the solution lies in following in the footsteps of the righteous predecessors who brought back glorious victory in second and third Crusades. And there could be no solution other than holding firm to the rope of Allah and being not divided, and fighting against the enemies of Allah as our righteous predecessors fought.

And today, the soldiers of the Islamic State have repeated in multiple lands what their heroic brothers have done in other Crusader states, punishing the states of Turkey, Spain, Russia, Belgium, and other lands of the Crusaders and murtaddin. So let the Crusader governments prepare themselves for an increase of loss in war, and for an increase in what they hemorrhage of wealth and of things that are precious to them, for tomorrow is close at hand.

TOMORROW FOR CRUSADERS

RENOUNCING

WORLDLY PLEASURES IN ORDER TO

Gain Nearness to Allah

{You (Alone) we worship you (Alone) we ask for help} [Suratul Fatiha: 5]

Allah the Exalted says in the noble Quran:

{Whatever is with you, will be exhausted, and whatever is with Allah (of good deeds) will remain} [Suratun Nahl: 96]

And He the Almighty also says:

{Know that the life of this world is only play and amusement, pomp and mutual boasting among you, and rivalry in respect of wealth and children, as the likeness of vegetation after rain, thereof the growth is pleasing to the tiller; afterwards it dries up and you see it turning yellow; then it becomes straw. But in the Hereafter (there is) a severe torment (for the disbelievers-evil doers,) and (there is) Forgiveness from Allah and (His) Good Pleasure (for the believers-good doers) whereas the life of this world is only a deceiving enjoyment} [Suratul Hadid: 20]

Allah Azzawajjal also says about this Dunya (life of this world):

{Verily the likeness of (this) worldly life is as the rain which We send down from the sky, so by it arises the intermingled produce of the earth of which men and cattle eat until when the earth is clad with its adornments and is beautified, and its people think they have all the power of disposal over it, Our Command reaches it by night or day and We make it like a clean-mown harvest, as if it had not flourished yesterday!} [Suratul

Yunus: 24]

{And put forward to them the example of the life of this world, it is like the water (rain) which We send down from the sky, and the vegetation of the earth mingles with it, and becomes fresh and green. But (later) it becomes dry and broken pieces, which the winds scatter. And Allah is Able to do everything. Wealth and children are the adornment of the life of this world. But the good righteous deeds that last, are better in your Lord's Sight for rewards and better in respect of hope}

{Suratul Kahf: 45-46]

Furthermore, Allah the Exalted also says:

{Say: "Short is the enjoyment of this world. The Hereafter is (far) better for him who fears Allah."} [Suratun Nisaa: 77]

Allah also says:

{Nay, you prefer the life of this world. Although the Hereafter is better and more lasting} [Suratul A'la: 16-17]

Moreover, Allah says:

{And strain not your eyes in longing for the things We have given for enjoyment to various groups of them (polytheist and disbelievers in the Oneness of Allah), the splendour of the life of this world that We may test them thereby. But the provision (good reward in the Hereafter) of your Lord is better and more lasting}
[Suratu Ta-Ha: 131]

Allah the Exalted also says:

{Verily! We have made that which is on the earth as an adornment for it, in order that We may test them (mankind) as to which of them are best in deeds. And Verily! We shall make all that is on (the earth) a bare dry soil (without vegetation or trees etc} [Suratul Kahf: 7-8]

Additionally, Allah the Exalted says:

{And were it not that all mankind would become of one community (all disbelievers, desiring worldly life only,) We would have provided for those who disbelieve in the Most Beneficent (Allah), silver roofs for their houses, and elevators (and stair-ways etc of silver) whereby to mount. And for their houses, doors (of silver), and thrones (of silver) on which they could recline; and adornments of gold. Yet all this (i.e. the roofs, doors, stairs, elevators, thrones etc of their houses) would have been nothing but an enjoyment of this world. And the Hereafter with your Lord is only for the pious and righteous person}
[Suratuz Zukhruf: 33-35]

Many places in the Holy Quran encourages one to renounce the life of this world and the Quran informs us of its lowliness, worthlessness, insignificance, and that it (this worldly life) is finally coming to an end. At the same time, He (Allah) encourages the believers by placing in them, an awaking desire for the next eternal life and explaining the pleasures and delights of an everlasting bliss.

Eventually, if Allah wants good for His slave, He shows His slave the reality of this debased and fleeting life. So, which of the two should take precedence over the other, this life or the next? Many have defined the meaning of Zuhd.

I heard Ibn Taymiyyah say about Zuhd and (Wara'a): "Zuhd is to leave alone those things which will not benefit you in the next life. And Wara'a (piety) is to leave the things you fear might harm you in the next life."

And this so far, has been (one of) the best explanations, of the meaning of Zuhd and Wara'a.

Sufiyyaan at-Thauri said about Zuhd: "Zuhd is to have limited amount of expectations (very few hopes regarding Dunya); It does not mean eating poor or inadequate foods as many think, or wearing a cheap gown or cloak."

Regarding Zuhd, Allah the Exalted says in the Holy Quran:

{In order that you may not be sad over matters that you fail to get, nor rejoice because of that which has been given to you. And Allah likes not prideful boasters} [Suratul Hadid: 23]

So, Zuhd in the (above) verse is defined as: not being overjoyed with the glitters of the life of this world and not to regret things which have passed you by.

Ibn al Ja'laal said: "Zuhd is to know that this life is a temporary one that will pass away; it should not be magnified in one's heart, nor should much focus be placed on it. Rather, one should turn away from it; it is said Zuhd means to refrain from this Dunya (world), without showing off."

Al-Ju'nayd said: "Zuhd means to free the heart from always wanting."

The great Imaam, Imaam Ahmed said: "Zuhd is not to have too many expectations."

He also said: “Zuhd in this world is: ‘not’ to be overjoyed with what one possesses and not to be distressed by turning away from it (i.e. the world).” So, he (Imaam Ahmed) was asked about a man who had one thousand dirhams, and if such an individual could be considered a Zaa’hid (i.e. one who renounces this world). So, Imaam Ahmed said: “Yes, but with one condition, which is, if his wealth increases he does not become too joyful and if it decreases he doesn’t become distressed and unhappy.”

The venerable Ibn Mubaarak said regarding Zuhd: “It is having trust in Allah, and being content in times of poverty.”

Abdul Waahid Ibn Zaid said: “Zuhd can be practiced by a person, even if he only possesses one deenar or dirham.”

Abi Sulimaan ad-Daa’raani said: “Zuhd means, to leave those things that distract you from Allah the Exalted and High; and many other Ulama (Scholars) have also said this statement.”

Ruweemul-Ja'nayd said regarding Zuhd: "It is to belittle the Dunya (this life) and to wipe away its traits from ones heart."

Thu'l-Noon al-Misree said about Zuhd: "Zuhd is controlling ones Nafs (one desires)."

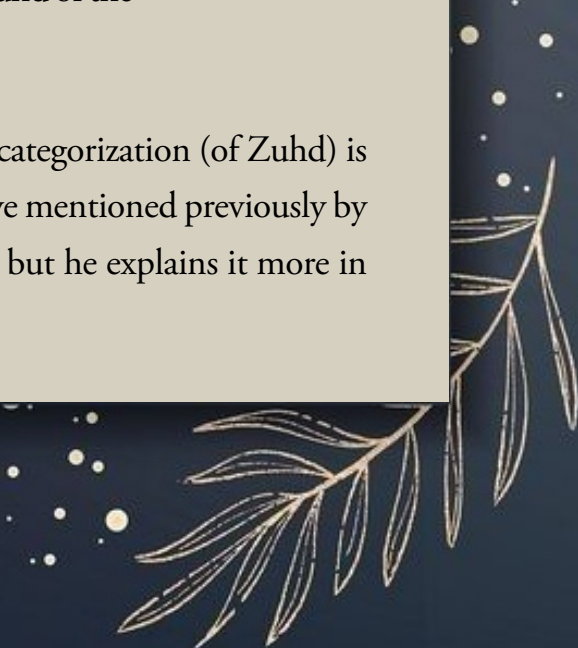

Imaam Ahmed said that Zuhd can be put into three categories:

The first: In leaving the Haraam (impermissible things); this is related to the common people.

The second: Leaving the preferred things even though Halaal (permissible); this is for the specific types of people from the upright and steadfast.

The third: Leaving the things that distract you from Allah; this is the Zuhd of the knowledgeable ones.

Imaam Ahmed's above categorization (of Zuhd) is the same as what we have mentioned previously by other Ulama (Scholars) but he explains it more in detail.

There are six things that if the slave possesses them, he deserves the title of 'Zaahid' (one who renounces the world):

The first: Moderation in spending ones wealth.

The second: Lack of desire for leadership.

The third: Moderation in one's appearance.

The forth: Not engaging too much with the people.

The fifth: Learning to control his desires.

The sixth: Moderation in things not concerning Allah

And this doesn't mean refusing leadership such as being a legitimate ruler and the likes; because Prophet Dawood (David) and his son Prophet Sulaymaan (peace be upon them) were of the noblest kings ever to walk the earth both, but both had renounced this world and at the same time possessed great wealth, women and (other) things of this world.

Furthermore, Prophet Muhammad ﷺ who also gave up the life of this world had nine wives. (Also) Ali Ibn Abee Taalib, Abdur Rahmaan Ibn Awwf, Zubayr and Uthmaan (may Allah be pleased with them all), were all noble men recognized for renouncing this (temporary) life; yet, at the same time, these men were known to be wealthy.

Hasan Ibn Ali was known amongst the Companions to be one who gave up this (temporary) life, regardless of the fact that he loved women and (loved) to marry them. And Layth Ibn Sa'ad was known to be of those who practiced Zuhd, though he possessed great wealth. That which seems to be the 'most excellent' of the greatest sayings defining the word Zuhd (renouncing the world), is the statement of the great Imaam of the Sunnah, Hasan al-Basri who said: "Zuhd is not that you make the permissible (things) impermissible or by wasting one's money. But, rather Zuhd is that you acknowledge that what Allah the Exalted has (i.e. prepared for the doers of good) is better than what you have (i.e. what you possess)."

Furthermore, Prophet Muhammad ﷺ who also gave up the life of this world had nine wives. (Also) Ali Ibn Abee Taalib, Abdur Rahmaan Ibn Awf, Zubayr and Uthmaan (may Allah be pleased with them all), were all noble men recognized for renouncing this (temporary) life; yet, at the same time, these men were known to be wealthy.

Hasan Ibn Ali was known amongst the Companions to be one who gave up this (temporary) life, regardless of the fact that he loved women and (loved) to marry them. And Layth Ibn Sa'ad was known to be of those who practiced Zuhd, though he possessed great wealth. That which seems to be the 'most excellent' of the greatest sayings defining the word Zuhd (renouncing the world), is the statement of the great Imaam of the Sunnah, Hasan al-Basri who said: "Zuhd is not that you make the permissible (things) impermissible or by wasting one's money. But, rather Zuhd is that you acknowledge that what Allah the Exalted has (i.e. prepared for the doers of good) is better than what you have (i.e. what you possess)."

The Ulama (Scholars) have differed as to whether or not one could practice Zuhd in our age and time.

Abu Hafs said regarding Zuhd: ‘There will not be any Zuhd except in the permissible things (i.e. one being moderate in the permissible things) and there are no permissible things in this Dunya (life).’ Many people (scholars) have differed with this definition by Abu Hafs. Rather, they say (the scholars) that there are permissible things in this Dunya (worldly life), and also a lot of impermissible things. Yusuf Ibn Asbaat said: “If I were informed that so and so had reached the level of a Zaahid that Abu Thar reached, or that they had reached the level of Abu Darda in Zuhd, or the level of Sulaimaan or Miqdaad or the likes of these noble Companions of the Prophet Muhammad , then I would regard this individual as being one who practices Zuhd because the Halal (permissible things) in our times are not clear, but if you do Haraam, Allah will punish you.’

The scholars have further differed regarding Zuhd; some say that Zuhd can only be in the permissible things (i.e. even though these things are permissible, it is recommended to leave and abstain from these things), as for the impermissible things, then there is no Zuhd because one 'must' (i.e. is obligated) to abstain from these things. Another group of scholars have said that Zuhd is only in avoiding the impermissible things, and as for the permissible things, then these are things which Allah has bestowed upon His slaves, and that He loves to see His Favours, which He grants to His slaves apparently. He (Allah) loves to see His slaves thankful and that they use (Allah's) Favours upon them in ways which will aid the slave upon obedience to Him, and also for the slave to use them as a means to assist himself getting to Jannah (Paradise.)

Conclusion:

So if the permissible things distract the slave away from Allah, then it is preferred for the slave to abstain from them. And if he sees that these permissible acts aid him and strengthen his relationship with Allah, increasing his thankfulness to Allah, then it is better to continue doing them. So, if the slave were to refrain from doing the above-mentioned things, he would be denying the heart, which is in need and want of such nourishment, much good. And Allah knows best.

FOR WOMEN

THE NATION DESERVING HOLOCAUST THE MOST

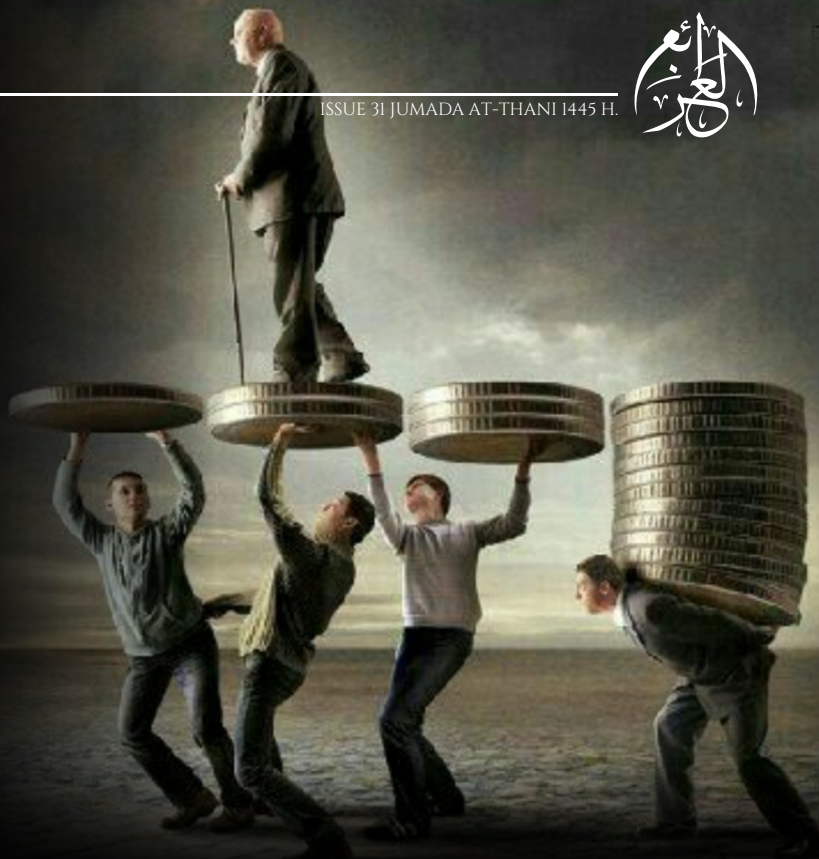

It's a story of a people who corrupted the history with their malevolent mindset, evil deeds, and disobedience to Allah the Lord of the heavens and the earth. They are the Jews who invoked the wrath of Allah, although they were the chosen ones and possessed virtue over other nations of their time. They have a history of transgression against the commandment of Allah. They have been playing as the mastermind behind almost every evil for thousands of years. And they have turned themselves into the perfect emissary of Satan upon the earth today. They are the infamous killers of the prophets, and they committed innumerable treacheries with the messengers and their prophetic missions. They distorted their divine religion by concealing parts of their scriptures, and bringing innovations into it. Such an enormously treacherous people even attempted to do treachery with Allah, the All-Seer, All-Knower, to the extent that they were turned into apes and pigs as a torment from the Almighty.

Jews are the architect of the ominous modern usury based global financial system; they have been dealing with this usury from long ago, and they adopt every unfair means of earning money. During the time of Prophet Muhammad ﷺ in Madina, the Jewish tribes therein also dealt with usury; they used to lend the people of Madina loans with interests, and became well-off through it, as they used usury as a weapon to materialize their interests. They used to corrupt society through this evil, although Allah Azzawajjal declared war against those dealing with usury. Allah Azzawajjal says:

{O you who have believed, fear Allah and give up what is still due to you from the Riba (usury), if you are true believers. If you do not do so, then take notice of war from Allah and His Messenger} [Al-Baqarah: 278-279]

Have you ever pondered over why Allah Azzawajjal has taken such strong stance against Riba? This is because it is an evil that is enough to cripple economies and spread many forms of corruptions upon the earth. Usury is the main ingredient of Capitalism which ensures the circulation of wealth in the wealthier section only, trampling the poorer section continually and squeezing more and more out of the poorer ones. Usury lays the foundation of enslavement and political unrest and instability. We see the Jews at the forefront of these evils, as they have been carrying this legacy of evil from generation to generation for passively maintaining their hegemony over others. They are the treacherous fellows, plotting behind the screen, playing the role behind every big event of the world. They hardly come ahead valorously, except in front of the weaker ones for persecuting them. Undoubtedly, treason is best exemplified by the Jews. But its not like that their treasons went unreckoned throughout their history; they had to pay heavy price for typical Jewish treachery.

People Enjoining Evil and Forbidding Good

If we try to unveil the real face of modern civilization covered by the veil of progress and development, we shall find no difficulty to perceive how ugly it is. Polytheism, poverty, socio-political unrest and frustration, corruption, injustice, immorality, nudity, extrajudicial murder, lack of social order, and so on. Hence, mass media plays a crucial role in manipulating the thoughts and emotions of the masses. Media dictate the way of their thinking, their likes and dislikes. It shapes the psychology of the masses. Global media is like the magicians of Firawun who controlled the mind of the people for maintaining Firawun's rule over them. Jews controlled most of the media franchises of the time. They are behind the entertainment industries; they are the promoters of nudity; they want to turn the society into immoral one by promotion of nudity, homosexuality, and pornography so that people's affairs can be easily manipulated by them.

Hollywood is mostly controlled by the Jews, the film making giants like Walt Disney, Touchstone Pictures, Hollywood Pictures, and Caravan Pictures are owned by the Jews. Besides they possess significant hold on the cable network as well. You will find the Jews in the top executive positions of the film industries, TV channels, News broadcasting corporations, sports channels, so on. They decide over which news the masses should be fed. They play with people's mind. With their magic spell, they portray reformists as terrorists and vice versa.

Israeli spokeswoman Tzipora Menache once said, "You know very well, and the stupid Americans know equally well, that we control their government, irrespective of who sits in the White House. You see, I know it and you know it that no American president can be in a position to challenge us even if we do the unthinkable. What can they (Americans) do to us? We control congress, we control the media, we control show biz, and we control everything in America. In America you can criticize God, but you can't criticize Israel..."

Regarding the socioeconomic destruction, the Jews play the most significant role as well. They are inventor of the modern banking and monetary systems which deal with interests for paralyzing traditional economy of mankind. Modern monetary system controls economy of all the countries of the world. The Jews and the Western power attempt to paralyze any nation by putting sanctions on it when they wish. They are the initiators of most of the man-made catastrophes of the time. In short, the Jews are a cancerous threat for the existence of humanity.

Early Humiliations

Bani Israel, from the time of Firawun to the 21st century, went through ethnic cleansing many times. 605 years prior to the birth of Isa, 'Alayhis Salam, Nebuchadnezzar massacred

Jews, destroyed their holy kingdom, and took almost the entire Jewish population with him as slaves to his land. Allah the Exalted says in Quran: {And We decreed for the Children of Israel in the Scripture: "Indeed you would do mischief in the land twice and you will become tyrants and extremely arrogant!" So, when the promise came for the first of the two, We sent against you servants of Ours given to terrible warfare. They entered the very innermost parts of your homes. And it was a promise (completely) fulfilled} [Al-Isra: 4-5]

Ibn Jarir recorded that Yahya bin Sa'id said: "I heard Sa'id bin Al-Musayyib saying: Nebuchadnezzar conquered as-Sham, destroying Jerusalem and killing them (Jews), then he came to Damascus and found blood boiling in a censer. He asked them: What is this blood. They said: We found our forefathers doing this. Because of that blood, he killed seventy thousand believers and others, then the blood stopped boiling. This report is Sahih from Sa'id bin Al-Musayyib, and this event is well-known, as he (Nebuchadnezzar) killed their nobles and scholars, and did not leave alive anyone who knew the Tawrah by heart. He took many prisoners from the sons of the prophets and others, and did many other things that would take too long to mention here. And Allah knows best.

Yet, Allah Azzawajjal gave this nation many opportunities to repent and turn back to His religion. And the Most Merciful showered His blessings upon Bani Israel repeatedly despite their repeated betrayal. The Almighty says: {Then We gave you a return of victory over them. And We helped you with wealth and children and made you more numerous in manpower} [Al-Isra: 6]

But the Jews did always resort to mischief. So, 70 years after Isa, 'Alayhis Salam, was raised to the Heaven, Titus of Rome laid siege to Jerusalem. The Herodian temple eventually fell, and with it the whole city, and Titus ordered destruction of the entire city. The treacherous Jews were expelled from their land. Allah Azzawajjal says: {Then, when the second promise came to pass, (We permitted your enemies) to disgrace your faces and to enter the Masjid as they had entered it before, and to destroy with utter destruction all that fell in their hands} [Al-Isra: 7]

This led to Jewish diaspora, which means their humiliating wandering around the world without having a territory of their own for nearly 2000 years, until 1948 when their centuries of begging to the Crusading powers of the West begot them a piece of land in as-Sham which would be a launchpad for decades of heinous atrocities against the Muslims by them.

The Holocaust of WWII

The holocaust of Jews during second world war is fathomed as one of the bloodiest chapters in the history. People may wonder why Jews underwent such horrific atrocities that none has ever witnessed. But before delving into the reasons behind this carnage, we have to understand the reality of the Jews prior to the WWII. They were the elites of the European societies. After the so called “Jewish diaspora” (meaning their being ousted from their holy land due to their betrayal with the divine religion), they got dispersed in the whole world, and they could not come back to their holy land for nearly 2000 years. During the period of diaspora, they infiltrated many nations through merchandise based on usury, and they gradually found their ways to the ruling classes of them, and started manipulating public affairs in favor of them. They were the masterminds behind the Capitalistic feudalism and also behind the Communist authoritarianism. Adlof Hitler said: “The Jews are like a parasite that lives in the body of other nations.”

As the wrath of Allah descended upon them in form of tyrant Hitler, they were killed en-masse, even women and children were not spared. The Nazis used different violent techniques for mass executing surprisingly nearly six million Jews in a short while. They invented high tech facilities to ensure mass execution. One of which was the gas chamber method in which large number of them would be killed by gassing them in hermetically sealed gas chambers, passenger compartments, shower facilities, etc. Poisonous gases like Carbon monoxide, hydrogen cyanide, or pesticide, Zyklon B, were used for mass murdering them. Then their corpses would be burnt in pit or crematorium furnaces. Then the ashes would be buried, unburnt bones would be ground to powder by pestle, and used as fertilizer. This is how the Nazis dealt with the waste disposal issue of such huge number of corpses of Jews. And their toiling life in the labor camps and concentration camps also led to significant reduction of Jewish population during the holocaust period of WWII. Even Jewish women would be forced to shave their heads in the concentration camps. And there are stories that the human hairs of Jews would be used to make carpets which would be used in the Nazi offices. With regards to public humiliation, in Vienna, Jews would be forced to scrub the streets on their hands and knees.

Prior to the ethnic cleansing, the Jews also passed through another humiliating stage in Germany when they had to wear Jewish dresses and Star of David on their clothes as apparent features for distinguishing them from others. They were not allowed to put their names like other Europeans. The Zionists of today might have forgotten the humiliating condition of their predecessors in the ghettos and camps during the second world war, due to overcrowding, lack of food, and poor sanitation. These are the instances that describe the depth of the humiliation of the people (Jews) once the chosen by Allah; such humiliation befell them for no reason other than disobeying His commandments. In fact, tyrant Hitler understood the ugliness of this nation (Jews) very well, and he also perceived how detrimental this nation, which evoked the anger of Allah, for the entire humanity could be. So, Nazis used to say, "The only solution of the Jewish problem is to annihilate the Jews."

Brutality by the Jews Who Survived the Holocaust

These are the peak of the horror the Jews were subjected to. The depth of this onslaught can't be fully understood from the texts of the historians. It is already known to all that the historical character behind such dreadful stage was Adolf Hitler. Some says he was driven by personal antipathy towards the Jews that was developed in him during his childhood. So, some sort of injustice from them made him loathing the Jews from his very childhood, although these are just conspiracy theories. I am not here to defend the crime of killing innocent children committed by Hitler; he was just another nationalistic Taghut of his time in our eyes, and nothing more than that. But I want to debunk the Capitalistic rivals of Hitler, who tried their best to downgrade his image and establish the Jews as the innocent victims of genocide. Hence, I don't say that Hitler was just in his actions, since those were solely out of personal revenge. And Islam never allows such extermination of innocent women and children. But Allah Azzawajjal inflicted Hitler on the Jews as a manifest wrath of Him. So, no matter how much the western media try to prove the innocence of the Jews in order to propagate the ideologically bankrupt theory of "Anti-Semitism," they can't really do so, if the ugly face of the Jews can be unveiled to the world.

Soon after escaping the brutal persecution by the Nazis, we find Allah's wrath-invoking Jews unjustly settling scores on the innocent Muslims in Palestine.

It is said that when Jews were sent as refugees to Palestine for occupying it, brutal murderers and mental patients from prisons all over the world were sent to Palestine. There was no humanity among these Jews. Muslim blood was like juice to them. And they used to call human flesh 'pork'. The most brutal ones were assigned as the high-ranking officers in the Israeli army. History is a witness that how Jews, in association UN, perpetrated war crimes on the Palestinian Muslims by rounding them up and driving them out of their homes. The houses of these Muslims were occupied by the Jews. In a refugee of the Muslims, during an Islamic occasion of the Muslims, the Jews played loud songs in the guise of rejoicing. Under the guise of these songs, no one could hear the shouts of oppressed Muslims. Jews used to enter the Muslims' tents and slaughter Muslims like butchers. When they would get tired, then they would drink alcohol, then would pour it on the Muslims and laugh, then would keep dancing on their bodies. The Jews celebrated this massacre as a festival. In the next morning, there were dead bodies of Muslims everywhere in the camp. The dead bodies of the Muslims could not be identified since the Jews disfigured them. All body parts were buried in a mass grave. The houses, gardens and fields of the dead were occupied by Israelis, and this process continues till today.

Such is the ugly face of so-called innocent survivors of the holocaust of WWII. And such a loathsome face of the people deserving the wrath of Allah can also be perceived by taking their ongoing baby-killing "self-defense" in Palestine into account.

Their ugliness can also be perceived if we see them even bragging about killing of Muslim women and children in Palestine. Truly, history has never witnessed such “self-defense” of the tyrants through indiscriminate aerial bombardment and shelling! If the “self-defense” of the Zionists takes such heavy toll of life of the innocent civilians in Palestine, then what their full-fledge offensive might end up in?! There is no power nor might except with Allah.

Humiliation at the Hands of Early Muslims

This is the reality of the Jews who deserve wrath of Allah, unless they are guided to the right of Tawheed. Indeed, Allah doesn't guide the transgressors and defiantly disobedient ones. From first day of Islam, the Jews are the arch enemy of Islam and the Muslims, although the Truth of Islam was well manifested to them. And they have already paid heavy price for their enmity towards Islam. And the stories of the Banu Qurayza, Banu Nadir, Banu Qaynuqah are known to all that how they had to embrace endless humiliation for harboring hatred towards the allies of Allah and violating treaties. To elaborate, the disgraceful end that Jewish tribe Bani an-Nadir suffered was depicted in the saying of Allah the Exalted:

{It is He [Allah] Who expelled the ones who disbelieved among the People of the Scripture (Jews) from their homes at the first gathering. You did not think they would leave, and they thought their fortresses would protect them from Allah; but [the decree of] Allah came upon them from where they had not expected, and He cast terror into their hearts, [so] they destroyed their houses by their own hands and the hands of the believers} [Al-Hashr: 2]

And the Almighty also says: {And if not that Allah had decreed for them evacuation, He would have punished them in [this] world, and for them in the Hereafter is the Punishment of the Fire} [Al-Hashr: 3] Ibn Katheer (may Allah have mercy upon him) said: “Meaning, if it was not for the fact that Allah had already decreed that they (Bani an-Nadir) would evacuate al-Madinah, leaving behind their homes and their wealth, He would have sent another type of punishment upon them, such as being killed and captured. This is was said by Az-Zuhri.”

This is how the ousting of the Jews altogether from the Arabian Peninsula started, but the Jews of today might have forgotten the bitter fact: “History repeats itself.” That was a time when humanity didn't witness the technological advancement. But it is not only technological superiority that changes the battle game. So, no security assurance really lies in the modern weaponries and fortified cities for the Zionists against the upcoming holocaust at the hand of the Muslims, just as the fortification didn't help the Jews of Madina and Khyber against the torment of Allah at the hands of the Companions. Similarly, the American toys (war machines) delivered to them can't really protect them from the upcoming holocaust at the hand of sincere believers, who will be strong in faith and have firm conviction upon the help of Allah. This is the Ummah that has already dealt with the Mongol invasion and repelled it- Mongol savages were far more courageous and battle hardened than the "diaper soldiers" of Israeli Defense Forces. And it will definitely happen, bi'dh-nillah; Only thing the Jews can do today is to make fruitless efforts to delay that forthcoming carnage as much as possible, although delaying the decree of Allah is not in their hand.

Lastly, a message for the Islamic Ummah to learn: we are the people whom Allah the Exalted have honored through Islam, as He honored Bani Israel before. But they gave preferences to their whims and evil desires over the commandments of Allah, and made such arrogance an indispensable part of their distorted Deen. So, the Lord of the worlds chosen humiliation for them until the Day of Judgment, in His saying:

{And [mention] when your Lord declared that he would surely [continue to] send upon them [Jews] until the Days of Resur rection those who would afflict them with the worst torment} [Al-A'raf: 167]

And their worst torment will be at the hands of righteous ones, which will make them forget all the horrors of the past, bi'dh-nillah. So, it is required for them to repent and accept the Truth (Islam) before destruction befalls them or pay Jizyah humiliatingly.

However, the way Allah Azzawajjal humiliated the Jews at hands of His tyrannical slaves is a lesson for us to learn. If we deviate from the pure religion, abandon Jihad fi Sabilillah, the path to glory, we will be also humiliated by the Almighty, as we are already being enormously humiliated by one of the most humiliated ones (Jews).

And our message to the sincere believers in the lands of the Crusades, to the unsheathed swords of Allah, the glorious lone wolves, find every possible effective means to make this vast earth a narrow one for the Allah's wrath-evoking Jews so that they may feel the essence of the real holocaust coming ahead.

O the Muslims of Pakistan!
DON'T MISS THE CARAVAN OF

GLORY

Pakistan is the only nuclear state among the countries of the Muslims. But this Taghuti state was established upon great expectation of the oppressed Muslims of Hind who thought that it would be a country wherein their issues would be solved and they would regain their lost honour which they had gained through Islam. But frustratingly, this state adopted the shirk of democracy as its political system, not the Book and the Sunnah, since the sell-out leaders played major role in the establishment of this state.

And this state was established as a result of a political movement launched for mass-apostatizing the Muslims of Hind through encouraging them to preserve for their rights through Kufri democracy for finding a way out of the British colonial rule. One of such movements was the British Raj featured “Aligarh movement” led by Sir Sayed Ahmad Khan. He was a moderate murtadd and promoted by the British Tawagheet as a great reformist who had been trying to transform the Muslim society into a secular one under the pretext of promotion so called “scientific western education”. And this pro-British Raj movement later laid the foundation for the “All India Muslim League”. However, we find the Rafidah and Ahmadiya mushrikeen at the forefront of such murtadd movement that paved the way for the establishment of Pakistan, since they were the colonial elites under the British rule, and they wanted to maintain the British feudalism even after the partition of India. Such figures include Muhammad Ali Jinnah, Syaed Ameer Ali, Agha Khan, and so on. Earlier in the Indian sub-continent, the Hindus warmly welcomed the western language and culture in an attempt to near themselves to their British masters. Lacking Tawheed, these mushrikeen found it easier to please the colonial rulers other than defending their honour against the invaders through sacrifice, while the Muslims of Hind never accepted slavery. But unfortunately, in the end, they followed in the footsteps of the Hindus in an attempt to regain the lost honour through slavery. Then the British rulers further deceived them by the “two state” formula for the Muslims and Hindus under their “divide and rule” scheme, letting go of the fruits of the Islamic conquest of Hind by our righteous predecessors. And we find the ignorant Muslim masses satisfied with that formula of division for depriving them of their Shari’ right of being the ruling power of this region which Allah Azzawajjal bestowed them through Islam for many centuries. Ironically, the ignorant Muslims gladly accepted this division and slavery, as they boasted about the so-called sovereign state by the name of Pakistan, since the pro-British palace scholars deceived the Muslims claiming that Pakistan’s foundation was laid upon Islam and the interests of the Muslims, and they succeeded in deceiving the Ummah in the name of Islamic democracy. And such long cherished hope is still deceiving the Muslims of Pakistan, as the Pakistani military establishment and their paid scholars are still fooling its masses in the name of Islam. No other country in the world witnesses such commercialization of Islam like that in Pakistan. And the misuse of the term “Jihad fi Sabilillah” can be best manifested in Pakistan which is a safe haven to swarms of so-called jihadi organizations under the umbrella of Pakistan’s Kufri intelligence, ISI. The Pakistani army generals have really mastered the art of playing with the emotions of the Muslims.

So, how can a country like Pakistan ever address the issues of the Muslims and beget anything other than humiliation for them, being ruled by laws of Jaheliyyah (ignorance) and subjugating its people to the colonial powers? So, the condition of the Muslims rather deteriorated under the tyrannical rule of Pakistani army establishment for many decades.

Then the British rulers further deceived them by the “two state” formula for the Muslims and Hindus under their “divide and rule” scheme, letting go of the fruits of the Islamic conquest of Hind by our righteous predecessors.

The strange events taking place in Pakistan today are destabilizing the country further into chaos. And this is also affecting the situation of the Muslims of Hind now. The Kuffars' wish is being fulfilled to disintegrate the Pakistani Muslims and the Ummah overall. Where are the people who claim to be peace loving Muslims? Where are the people who give lectures on Islam? Why are they silent spectators now? Don't they see the solution in the religion of Allah, for all these Fitans? Isn't the Kufr of the Pakistani politicians and the army manifest? For what are they waiting now? Are the people waiting for the Fatwa from the scholars of ignorance and Taghut?

O my brothers and sisters! These traitors (Tawagheet) use every means at their disposal to deprive you from Al Haq. Allah says, "Surely those who disbelieve spend their wealth to hinder (people) from the way of Allah; so, they shall spend it, then it shall be to them an intense regret; then they shall be overcome; and those who disbelieve shall be driven together to hell." [Al-Anfal: 36] When these Tawagheet are spending what they have, why aren't you? What stops you from the spending your wealth and lives in the way of Allah? Is the word of Allah not enough to inspire you to strive in His way? But Allah has given us the open license to kill the infidels and their allies wherever we find them. Allah enjoins the believers to establish the Deen of Allah by through the sacrifice of their life and wealth. He the Almighty says: "And fight with them until there is no more persecution and religion should be only for Allah; but if they desist, then surely Allah sees what they do." [Al-anfal: 40]

Whether it be Taghut Imran Khan, Nawaz Shareef or any other Taghut of Pakistan, they are the same. They disobeyed Allah by implementing the laws of Jaheliyyah and oppressing the people in every walk of life. Muslims continue to face the results and consequence of the fierce aggression against Islam whether in their lands by the apostate allies of the Kuffar or the land of Kufr by the Kuffars. The aggression that was clearly manifested itself after the blessed 9/11 attack. They are revealing different forms of aggression: plundering Muslims' wealth, occupying their lands, imprisoning their men and women, killing their scholars and the worst of all is the aggression towards the very core principles of Islam.

The murtadd puppets of the West and America went deep in their disbelief, and resorted to transgress against the greatest values and principles dear to us – defaming and insulting the Holy Quran by implementing the “man-made laws”. The western Tawagheet sought to support these crimes in all possible means, hailing them as a symbol of the very basic core principles of their secularism. Officially and unofficially, they are doing every effort to propagate such transgression towards Muslims. And ever since they began this transgression, the Mujahidin took an oath to defend the honour of Prophet Muhammad ﷺ and have promised to teach them a lesson that they will never forget, as Shaykh Usama (may Allah accept him) said in his famous quote, “...And may our mothers be bereaved of us if we fail to help the Messenger of Allah ﷺ.” The Mujahidin lay in wait for them and ambushed them from where they least expected it.

“...And may our mothers be bereaved of us if we fail to help the Messenger of Allah ﷺ.”

Now as Almighty Allah blessed the land of Pakistan by consolidating the soldiers of the Islamic State to rejuvenate the Iman and lighten the flame of Tawheed to inspire the young generation, it is the duty of every Muwwahid to approach the people through all types of media and inspire the men and women to stand with soldiers of the Islamic State. It is the duty and responsibility of every believing Muslim to create the fear of the torment of Allah for “not answering the call of Jihad”. All praise is due to Allah, He Azzawajjal said: “Verily, those who abuse Allah and His Messenger, Allah has cursed them in this world, and in the Hereafter, and has prepared for them a humiliating torment.” [Al-Ahzab: 57]

May His Peace and Blessings be upon the Messenger who said: “By Him in Whose Hands my life is, none of you will have faith till he loves me more than his father and his children?” Allah the Exalted says: “Among the believers are men who have been true to their covenant with Allah (i.e. they have gone out for Jihad, and show not their backs to the disbelievers); of them some have fulfilled their obligations (i.e. have been martyred); and some of them are still waiting, but they have never changed (i.e. they never proved treacherous to their covenant which they concluded with Allah) in the least.” [Al-Ahzab: 23]

Dear brothers of Pakistan!

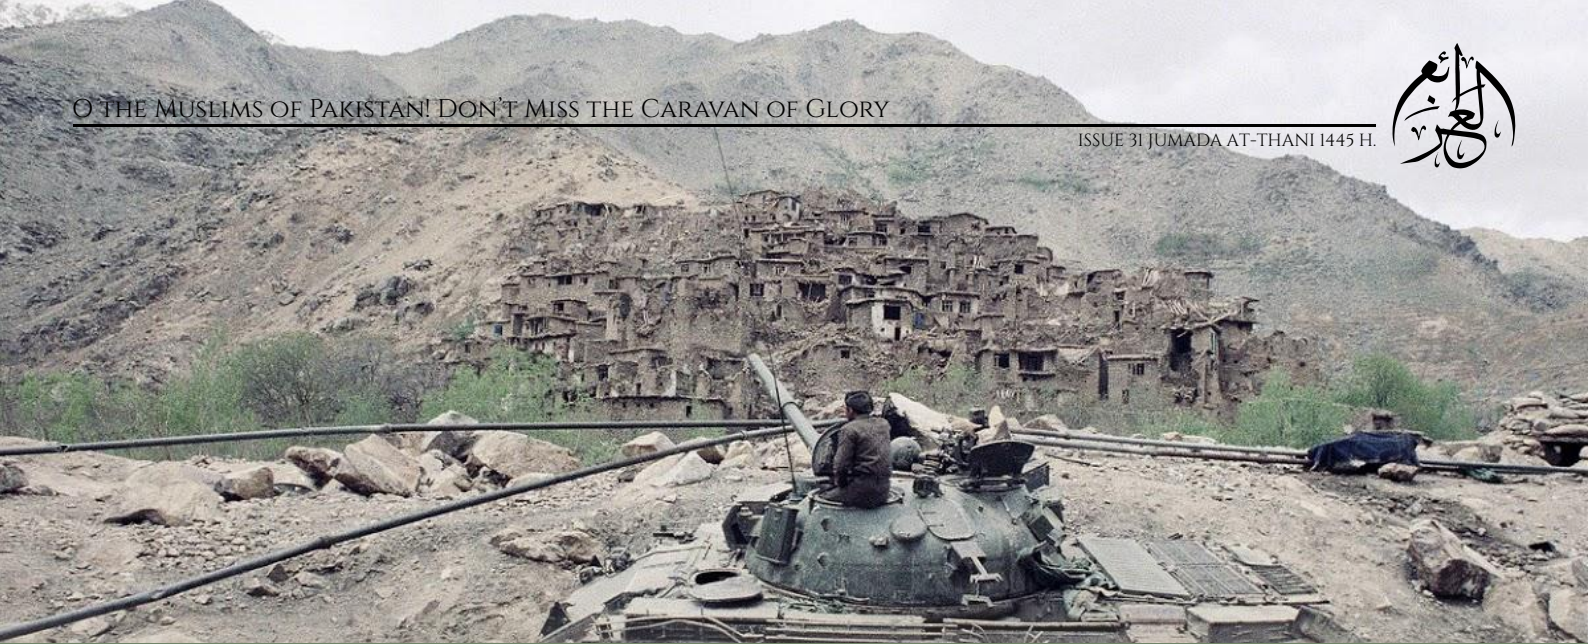

What stops you from waging jihad against the allies of Kuffar in Pakistan when Allah permits you to do so? Do you like our sisters, daughters and wives disobeying us and rejecting the Islamic dress code and becoming the cause of Fitnah in the society? Do you like our poor people to turn toward Kufr for the sake of monetary help given by the Kuffar when we have the system of Zakah? If you say 'no', then come and join us. We will humiliate the Kuffar and their allies at every corner and establish the Deen of Allah and wipe out the Kufri system prevalent in your land. But, if you refuse, then wait for the wrath of Allah to descend on you. There are people who are ready to bargain their lives in exchange of Paradise. As Allah the Almighty says: "Verily Allah has purchased of the believers their lives and their properties for that they will have paradise. They fight in Allah's cause, so they kill and are killed." [At-Tawbah: 111] And whatever weapons the Kuffars and their puppets make ready to fight Islam and the Mujahedeen, they will never gain victory. Allah the Almighty says: "Allah has promised those among you who believe and do righteous deeds that He will certainly grant them succession to

(the present rulers) in the land, as He granted it to those before them, and that He will grant them the authority to practice their religion which He has chosen for them (i.e. Islam). And He will surely give them in exchange a security after their fear, (provided that) they (believers) worship Me and do not associate anything (in worship) with Me." [An-Nur: 55]

However, not even the worldly revolution comes without sacrifice of blood, so the Islamic revolution is definitely in need of pure blood of the sincere Muslims everywhere to destroy the walls of apostasy in the way to elimination of Kufr and Shirk. So, the ongoing situation of the Muslims of Pakistan will not change unless its Muslim masses become prepared for sacrifice which the religion of Allah demands from them. And many times, in Pakistan, people have made sacrifice for thinking this will benefit the religion, but no sacrifice can benefit the Deen, if it is made in the Tawagheet administered cause.

During the Soviet-Afghan, Pakistani parents would send their sons to Afghanistan to fight against the Communists; and regarding the Kashmir issue, immense sacrifice has been being offered for decades, while none of them has benefitted Islam and the Muslims truly. And similarly, at the time of Al-Qai'dah in Waziristan a decade ago, the hypocrites and murtaddin, who infiltrated the ranks of Al-Qai'dah, TTP, and Afghan Taliban, have ruined the fruit of sacrifice of the blood and wealth of the Muslims. So, is it not enough for the Pakistani Muslims to realize the fact that it is the axis of the evil (Pakistani Tawagheet) who have been manipulating their religious zeal and sacrifice for their own interests? Is it not enough to realize that the murtadd Pakistani rulers have no commitment to the matters of the Muslims and Islamic values? Rather, the Pakistani Tawagheet uphold Islamic chants only for public support based on which they have been trying hard to consolidate their system of Kufr economically and military, but they have failed in that too, since slavery yields nothing but failure and humiliation. But our beloved Prophet Muhammad ﷺ said: "A believer should not be stung twice from the same hole."

[Agreed Upon] Unfortunately, the Ummah is repeatedly being stung from the same of hole of deception at the hand of the agents of the enemies of Islam, and such a scenario can be best manifested in Pakistan. Therefore, inspiring the sons for fighting against the Tawagheet of Pakistan is an undeniable obligation upon every believing parents of Pakistan instead of keeping them at home, if they really want to remove the shackle of humiliation and put an end to being played at the hands of the Kuffar and their agents, for Allah says: "Then fight in the Cause of Allah, you are not tasked except for yourself, and incite the believers, it may be that Allah will restrain the evil might of the disbelievers. And Allah is stronger in Might and Stronger in punishing." [An-Nisa: 84] Allah the Almighty further says: "Say if your fathers, your sons, your brothers, your wives, your relatives, wealth which you have obtained commence wherein you fear decline, and dwellings with which you are pleased are more beloved to you than Allah and His messenger and Jihad in His cause, then wait until Allah executed His command. And Allah does not guide the defiantly disobedient people." [At-Tawbah: 24]

Finally, let us recall the story of the Bani Israel as mentioned in the Holy Quran and Hadith that how they were blessed with immense blessings from Allah the Exalted and how they expressed their ingratitude to Allah through being disobedient to His commandments over and over again, until He the Almighty executed His command on them. Pakistan is also a land enriched in immense resources from which only the Tawagheet are benefiting themselves, leaving the hungry Muslim masses standing with humiliation in queue in want a piece of bread. True is the saying of Zulfikar Ali Bhutto, one of the prominent Taghut of Pakistan: “We (Pakistan) will eat grass, even go hungry, but we will get one of our own (Atom bomb).” And getting such Atom bombs has neither filled the empty stomachs of the hungry Pakistani masses nor has it brought any honour for the nation and religion, as we still find the puppet rulers of Pakistan begging from door to door of the kuffar, asking for financial helps. And it is enough to understand the depth of the humiliation, this nuclear state (Pakistan) is currently going through, by considering the mockery that got viral on social media, following the devastating earthquake in Turkey, “Pakistan wants to aid Turkish government by asking fewer financial loans from them.” So, dear brothers and sisters of Pakistan! Tear off the shackles of slavery from your neck, and do recognize the real path of honour and salvation, which is the Khilafah upon prophetic method. And strengthen it by giving bay’ah to the Amirul Mumineen, the Khalifah of the Muslims, the Mujahid Shaykh Abu Hafs al Hashimi Al Quraishi (may Allah preserve him). And such will be a profitable transaction through which Allah Azzawajjal will descend His blessings upon the Muslims, like He did at the time of Muhammad bin Qasim. And never forget about the blessings of Allah Azzawajjal upon you, of which the best blessing is that you can still perform many forms of ‘Ibadah (not all) in your land, which the oppressed Muslims throughout the world can’t.

And our final prayer is all praise is due to Allah, the Lord of the worlds.

LONG FORGOTTEN OPPRESSED ONES:

The Muslims of BALKANS

Before Islam finally arrived in the Balkans, it was ruled by the Christians who were shattered into many sects. The conquest of Bosnia and its the surrounding areas in the Balkan peninsula started in 1384 by the Ottoman Empire, and after this land was finally conquered and liberated from the grip of the kuffar in 1463 and its disbelieving inhabitants were humiliated at the hands of the Muslims, the seeds of hatred towards the Muslims were slinetly being sown therein. Nevertheless, around this time, Islam started to spread throughout Bosnia and other parts of the Balkans; it led to ethnic Bosniaks to accept Islam. Now with 3 main ethnic groups in the region that being Bosniak Muslims, Croat Catholic Christians, and Serb Orthodox Christians, it was set for future ethnic and mainly religious conflicts.

Beginning of the dark chapter of persecution

After long history of tensions, persecution and conflicts mainly against ethnic Serbs and after the fall of kafir communist government of Yugoslavia, Bosnia intended to create its own independent state and finally free itself from the rule of the tyrants; in 1992 declaration of independence was passed, although the foundation of the independance was not laid upon Sharia'h or you can say the Muslims became independent apparetly, but not Islam. So, such a partial independacne of the Muslims rather resulted in severe persecution of them starting with male and female prisoners being taken into "concentration camps", and the most notorious were incidents of Trnopolje and Omarska camps where thousands were starving, being beaten, tortured, and women were being raped. Then full scale war began after being invaded and attacked by kafir Serbs and their paramilitaries from the illegal state of Republika Srpska of Serbia, and it led to some of the worst war crimes imaginable against humanity, whilst the entire West was silent amid a genocide unfold, starting with massacring of all male Muslim population of villages and towns; women and girls were taken into "rape camps" where up to 50,000 Muslim women and girls were raped, and so on. It was the longest siege in modern history when Sarajevo was besieged and shelled for almost 4 years. And Srebrenica turned into a huge concentration camp without any bars for the Muslims, where all sort of war crimes, like torture, rapes, and execution, were used for controlling territories by the kafir Serb army. Not only all Muslims there were persecuted by the kafir Serbs, but also they were left without any foreign aid, as they were ruthlessly subjected to the arms embargo and sanctions by the UN Taghut and the infidel West, and later when the Muslims were being attacked by the Croat army, fighting erupted on two different fronts. On the other hand, the Muslim army didn't have much weaponry, and they were mainly defended by only civilian fighters and foreign mujahidin.

To elaborate, this tragic chapter of oppression of Bosnian Muslims does not actually begin here. Rather after the collapse of Yugoslavia, armed conflicts quickly erupted first in Slovenia and Croatia, and finally in Bosnia. As result of the losses on all three fronts, Bosnian Muslims had to pay the highest humanitarian price. Only a month after the so-called Bosnian declaration of independence in March 1992, a Serbia based paramilitary group attacked the city of Viëna, slaughtering between 48 and 78 non-Serb civilians in a single day. This marked the beginning of what would become a four years long dark chapter of killing, persecution, and rape perpetrated against the Muslims in this part of the world. Following this, Muslims in other towns on the Serbian border started to share the same of fate between May and August of 1992. In the city of Prijedor, over 3100 non-Serb civilians were massacred and the majority of them were Muslims. When the massacres began in other cities on the Serbian border, it was clear that the aim was to ethnically cleanse the region off the Muslim population. In the city of Bishopric between April and August of the same year, another 3000 Bosnian Muslims were killed, including 70 of them locked up and burned alive in a local house. Besides, concentration camps were being set-up here. A hotel near the city was used as a rape camp where women and girls even as young as seven years old were continuously being raped. By the end of 1992, there were nearly another 3000 victims in the cities of Vlasintza, Tusla, and Sbornick. The massacres of 2074 Muslim victims in the city of Focha paved the way to what was to eventually take place in Srebrenica in 1995.

Before the end of the war, the so called "UN peacekeepers" left behind Muslim civilians unprotected in safe zones in Srebrenica which resulted in the worst massacre of the war where 8,372 muslim men and boys were lined up and killed just a few days starting on July 11th. Srebrenica was declared as a safe haven by the UN, and the Dutch peacekeepers were assigned to defend it, as the Serb military was attempting to capture this city. But higher command of UN abandoned the plan of defending the Muslims of Srebrenica by the Dutch UN peacekeepers. So, the Serb army overrun it easily, when 20,000 Muslim women and children were crammed into the Dutch base. The Serbs guaranteed safe passage to women and children. But their troops hunted down the Muslim men of Srebrenica and executed them en-masse.

And the Bosnian genocide was described as worst example of ethnic cleansing since World War Two, when around 100,000 Muslims were killed. With the war ending, the hatred and tensions never went away, and war crimes committed against Muslims are still being unearthed. Even today mass graves are being discovered with the bodies of multitudes of martyrs. Truly, it is one of the horrific story of persecution of Muslims whose human cost is still unidentified. Later, similar fate awaited the Muslims of Kosovo and Albania.

However, the peace treaty signed in Dayton in 1995 marked the end of the war, but not the end of the injustice and oppression of the Muslims. Hence, the republic of Srpska was created whose borders were drawn on the mass murders of Muslims. The Srebrenica massacre was ruled as genocide by the international court of justice, obviously for political purposes, not to deliver justice to the oppressed Muslims, since other slaughters of the Muslim populations in the Balkans haven't been classified as genocide yet.

It is noteworthy that also during World War II, the Chetniks, a Yugoslav Royalist and Serbian nationalist movement, committed numerous war crimes against the Muslim population, killing thousands of them.

No justice for the Bosnian Muslims following the UN brokered peace treaty

Today, persecution of Muslims in Balkans is committed by the kafir Serbs and Croats, and beating and unproved attacks just because Islamic belief are being carried out incessantly. Attacks, including beating of elderly married couple during the last Ramadan and other incidents, happen very often. Many of those who committed or were directly involved in the murders and rapes of Bosnian Muslims have not yet been prosecuted, although it was not difficult at all to bring them to justice, and the Bosnian Muslims say there is still no peace. Question to be asked, why? Because- as usual- the fruit of years of striving by the Muslims and the outcome of pure blood sacrificed by the martyrs of Bosnia have been hijacked by the imposters of the Islamic Ummah.

A Bosnian Muslim returnee said: “What we have now is a cold war. From 1992 to 1995 they used (Serbian kuffar) weapons to ethnically cleanse Bosniaks from these areas and after 1995, when we returned, now they switched to using politics to make Bosniaks (Muslims) leave again.”

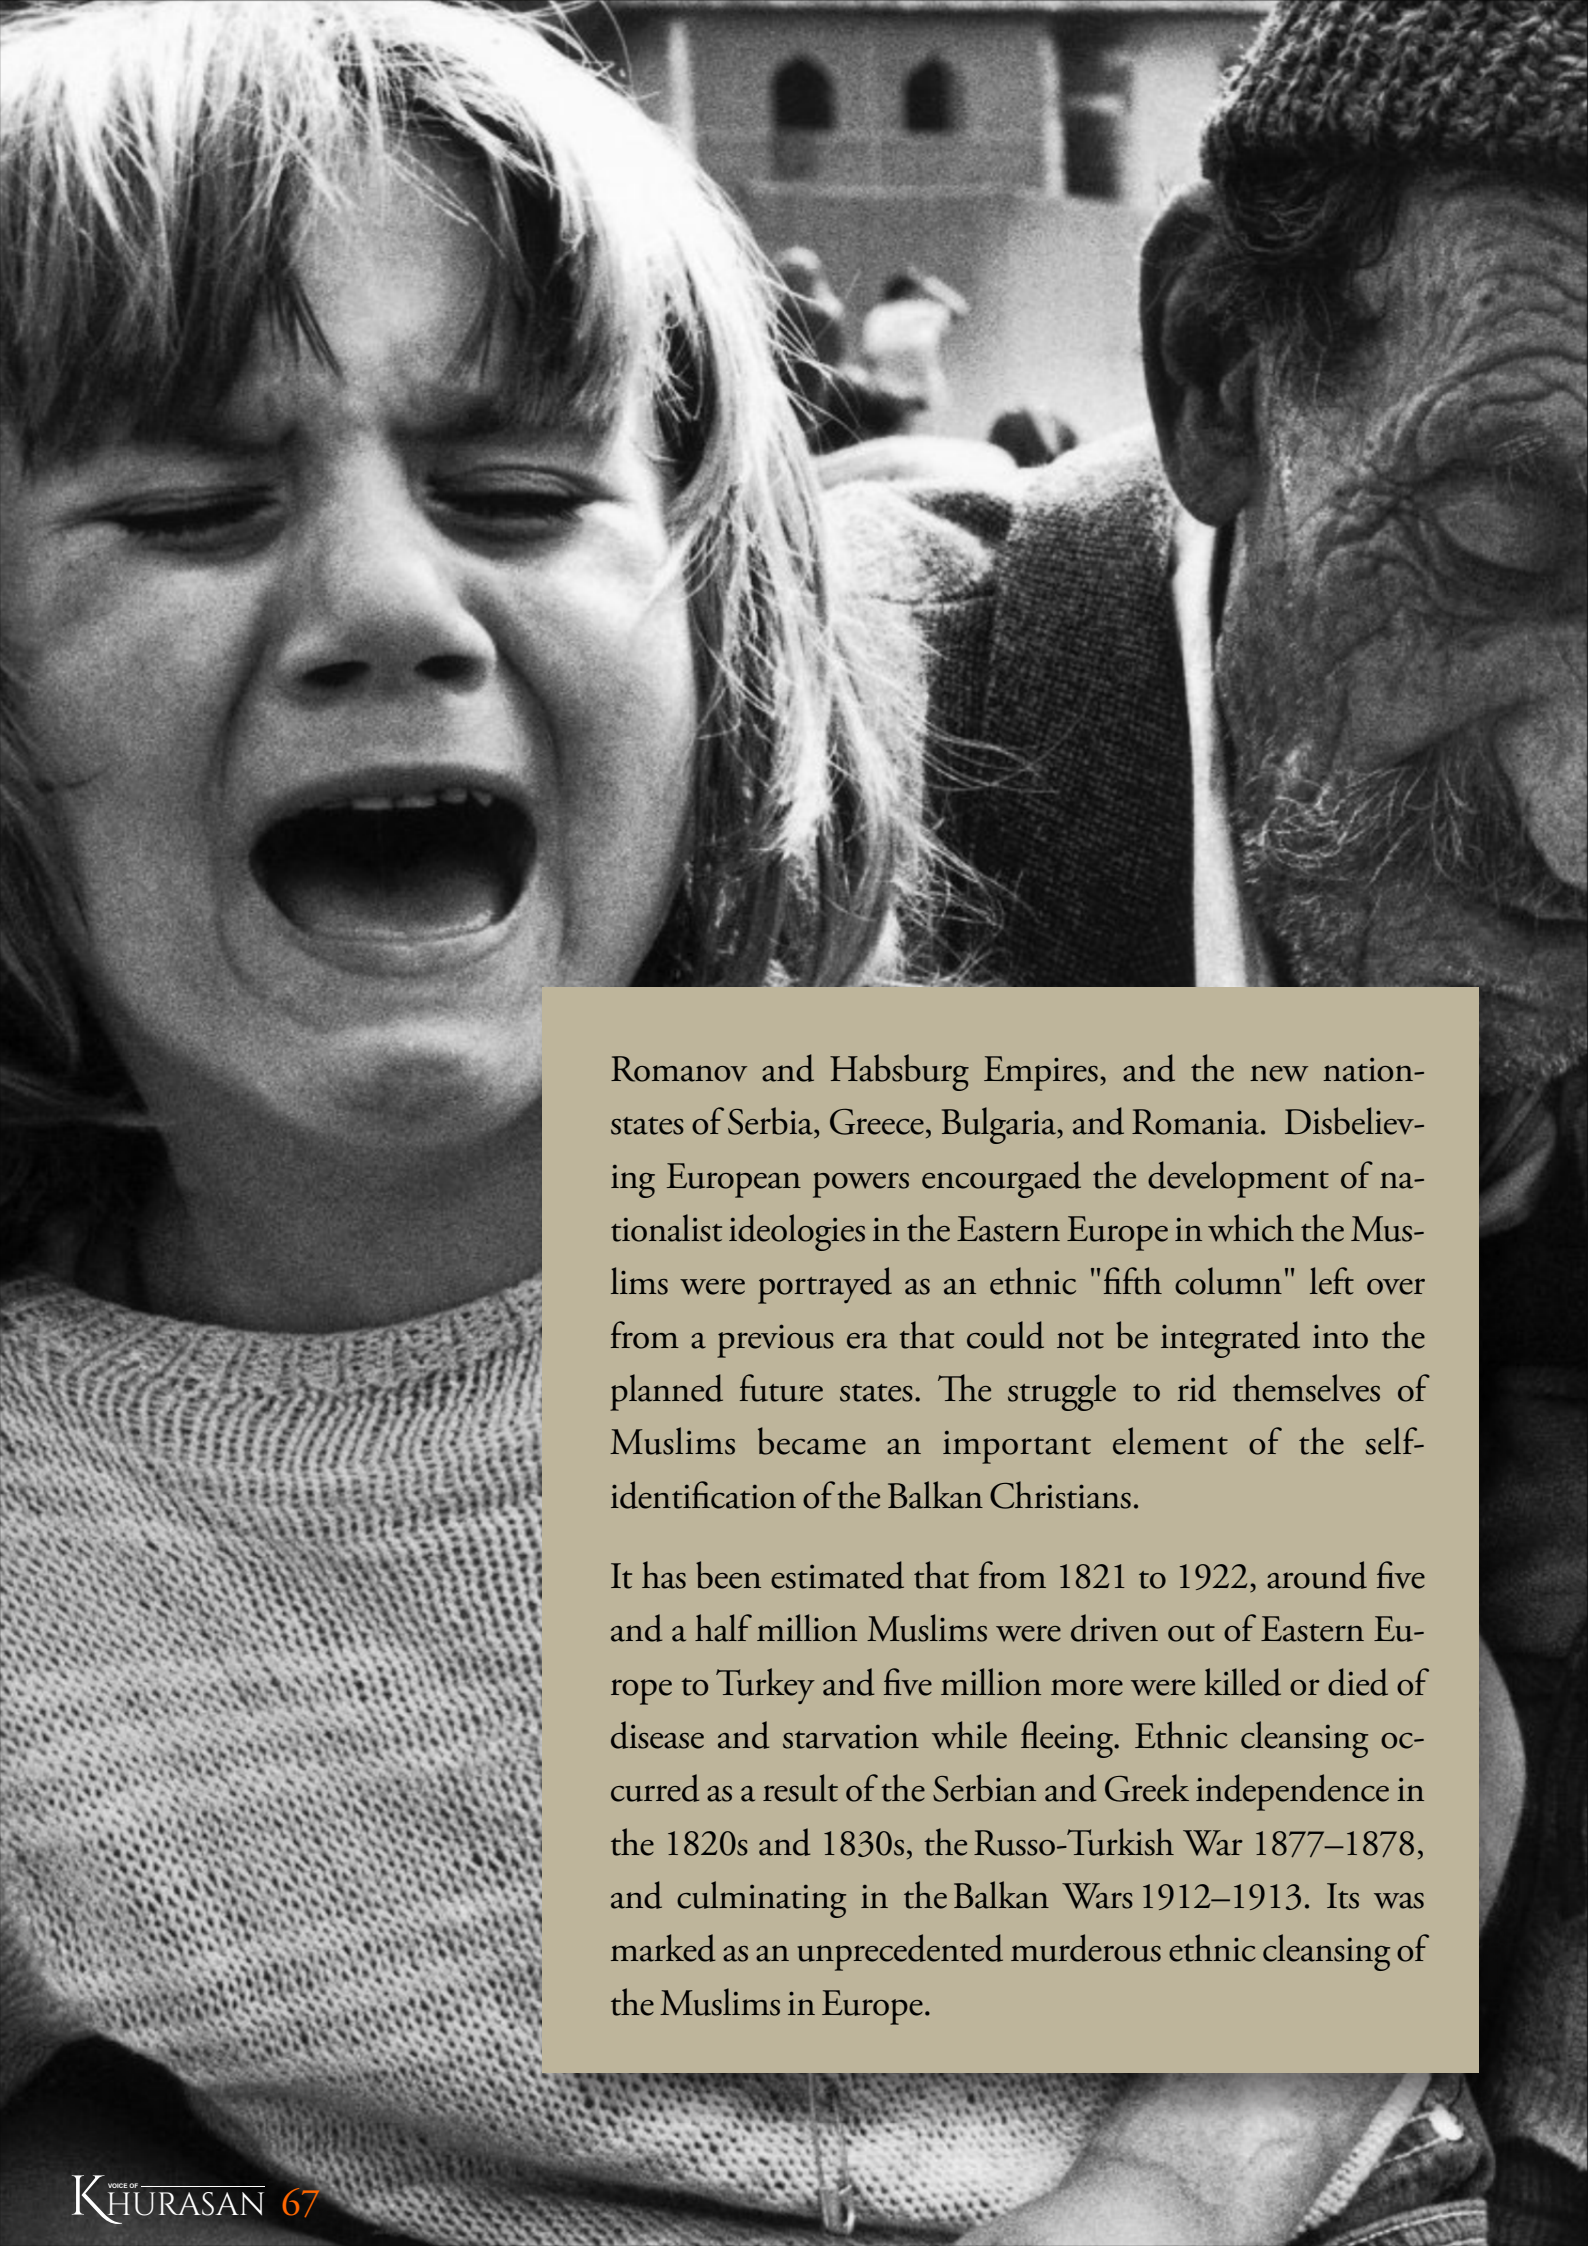

“Considering that after 20 years nothing had changed and with the authorities we have here now, we have no reason to expect that things will improve even in the next 200 years,” he added.

Unfortunately, the Serb authorities of Bosnia are waging a cold war against the Muslims to force them to leave again. Bosnian Serb leader, Milorad Dodik, is attempting to form a Serb paramilitary army, as he has been threatening to pull-out Republica Serbska of the state-level institutions of Bosnia which were established based on the Dayton agreement whose guarantors are the EU and the West. The ultra-nationalist Serb politicians have been plotting to forcefully grab the resources of Bosnia, which has led to the fear of another similar genocide-like scenario against the Bosniak Muslims who have not yet recovered from the trauma of the genocide occurring some 30 years ago.

Persecution of Muslims in Eastern Europe

As the Ottoman Empire entered the phase of their decline in the late 17th century, it started losing its territories both in Europe and the Caucasus to the Christian states of the old Romanov and Habsburg Empires, and the new nation-states of Serbia, Greece, Bulgaria, and Romania. Disbelieving European powers encouraged the development of nationalist ideologies in the Eastern Europe in which the Muslims were portrayed as an ethnic "fifth column" left over from a previous era that could not be integrated into the planned future states. The struggle to rid themselves of Muslims became an important element of the self-identification of the Balkan Christians.

It has been estimated that from 1821 to 1922, around five and a half million Muslims were driven out of Eastern Europe to Turkey and five million more were killed or died of disease and starvation while fleeing. Ethnic cleansing occurred as a result of the Serbian and Greek independence in the 1820s and 1830s, the Russo-Turkish War 1877–1878, and culminating in the Balkan Wars 1912–1913. It was marked as an unprecedented murderous ethnic cleansing of the Muslims in Europe.

Bulgaria, a gateway country between Eastern and Western Europe, tried for a long time to get rid of its rich Islamic history with around 1.5 million Muslims living in this country today. Many Muslims were expelled or just stripped of their Muslim identity. During the communist rule between 1940s to 1980s, at least 300,000 Muslims were expelled. Bulgarian government urged and forced many of its Muslim population to change their name to sound "more Bulgarian" and to renounce religion, depriving them of their wealth and property and confiscating mosques and turning them into for example warehouses or music clubs. All while thousands being martyred, arrested and sent to labour camps and forced to resettle.

Dark shadow of Islamophobia in Eastern Europe now

In the recent years, the "refugee crisis" is being used as a pretext for encouraging negative attitudes towards Islam and Muslims in Europe, especially in the Eastern European countries, to the extent that such an attitude is being used to pursue political goals. And such is being more evident with the rise of right-wing political movements and parties against western secularism over the past few years, as these parties have openly expressed their hatred towards Muslims in their political speeches and programs.

Islamophobia in Europe is an unexplored topic comparing with Anti-Semitism, so its a silent development ongoing in the Western countries, although the gullible Muslim migrants in the West are widely unaware of it, since they deem the West as a safe haven for them. So they can't really presume the depth of this ominous shadow of Islamophobia there. Honestly speaking, if you have never been a victim of deadly storm, you can't really imagine how devastating it can be. On the other hand, if you ask the Bosniak Muslims about what Islamophobia of European kafirs means, you will surely find them not even mistakenly trusting those savages for a while again. The extent of Islamophobia and its potential outcome for the Muslims can be best anticipated by a few examples. In Hungary, kafir politicians are decrying Islam and Muslim immigrants loudly. The Hungarian Prime Minister Viktor Orbán is suffering from severe allergy to people from different cultures in his country, obviously meaning the Muslims. And the former Czech President Miloš Zeman's hatred towards Muslims is even clearer, as he expressed his clear stance against Muslim migrants in his country. Besides, Poland only wants to welcome Christian refugees into the country; additionally, there are reports of attacks on different institutions for the Muslims therein. Furthermore, the far-right Polish party PiS, along with representatives of the Catholic church, have been attempting to demonstrate against the Muslims. The extent of Islamophobia in Eastern Europe is also illustrated by population surveys. Besides, quantitative surveys also testify that the issue of hatred towards Muslims is on the rise in Eastern Europe.

To conclude, no matter how much disbelievers of the West are trying to hide their animosity against the Muslims by portraying a secular image of them, claiming to have tolerance with the all religions, all ethnicities, but the unwhole-some reality is such tolerance exclude the Muslims. But the Muslims of the East and the West are only being deceived by their sweet speeches of religious equity, tolerance and secularism. The so called secular infidels of the West reveal their true color in the countries of the Muslims, like Bosnia, Iraq, Afghanistan, Yemen, Palestine, and so on, where they indiscriminately bomb Muslim women and children. And many centuries have already passed that the Islamic Ummah has been being subjected to many methodologies, which are far deviated from the fundamental teaching of Islam, for delivering justice to the Muslims and solving their issues, but unfortunately, none of them has been proven to be successful in achieving their goals yet nor will they be until the Day of Judgement, unless the Ummah turn back to the religion (Jihad fi Sabilillah) and attempts to address its issues through Jihad in the cause of Allah, dissociating from all the disbelievers, the allies of Shaytan. Indeed, true is the saying of our Lord regarding the disbelievers:

{O you who have believed, do not take as intimates those other than yourselves, for they will not spare you [any] ruin. They wish you would have hardship. Hatred has already appeared from their mouths, and what their breasts conceal is greater}

[Aal-i-Imran]

By Abu Khalid al-Australi

لا اله الا الله

O Mothers of the Ummah,

BRING UP YOUR CHILDREN FOR BRINGING BACK

IZZAH

All praise is due to Allah alone, and peace and blessings be upon him after whom there is no other Prophet to come, and what follows after: What the Ummah is mostly in need of at this difficult time of numerically evaluated civilization? Physical resources, development products, sustainability, socio-economic stability, technological advancement...? But these all are just material entities or their shadows at best. But what about spirituality, since an Ummah so indifferent about the necessity of the establishment of Din (Islam) is not something to be expected? In fact, the Ummah is in need of some heroes who will mark the beginning of a revolution, the beginning of the wind of change. But is a revolution all about hashtags, placards containing some empty words, "I support Palestine...", social gatherings in the name of peaceful demonstration against the tyrants in pursuit of justice, which is a word that doesn't really exist in their dictionary? Let's realize and say that our Ummah is in need of some honorable mothers who will bring up their children to play the role of heroes- heroes not for sake of this perishable rotten world, but real heroes for the greatest of the causes: supporting the religion and establishing Khilafah of Allah upon earth. What cause can be greater than this? We see fake heroes, toy soldiers, and hollow revolutionaries boasting and trying to occupy a little space in the heart of the ignorant masses for a while, and with the end of their youthful vigor, none literally remembers them. So, is it not better to please the Almighty who never forgets His righteous servants who remember Him secretly and openly? And striving in the cause of Allah for assisting His religion is one of the greatest causes of earning pleasure of Allah the Exalted, since through such noble and profitable striving, the heads of all the defiantly disobedient tyrants are lowered in humiliation and the Word of Allah becomes the Highest, and the earth witnesses what is truly meant by justice. For such noblest of causes of living, for such great station of honor, the best of the nations (the Islamic Ummah) needs mothers who would bring up their sons to become the heroes of Islam and to perform the greatest of duties. Undoubtedly, the most significant role of the mothers of this Ummah is to bring up their sons so that they bring the wind of change tomorrow. And this great role of the mothers can also be perceived seeing how mothers and children of this Ummah are regularly being bombed and massacred in Palestine and elsewhere by savages, given that - unfortunately- the predecessors of these savages (the Jews and the Christians) had gone through such systematic massacres many times in the history before. No noble nation without mothers who understand what nobility is. Majority of the women of this time are unaware of the concept of nobility. They don't understand what life of honor means. So, redefining honor and esteem is something to be looked upon. If you ask a mother of this time about what she pursues in her children, she won't be able to pursue anything beyond the traditional pursuits determined by the masters of the ongoing world order of slavery to the servants, and that is to become successful in this world in terms of wealth, power, fame, sustainable income, and ability to bear the expenses of the family, and so on. But a very few you will see pursuing humanly attributes like caring for others, helping others, striving for rightful causes, even if that demands immense sacrifice for the attainment of such, and so on. Notably, these attributes are best taught by Islam, since it is the only way of life determined by Allah Azzawajjal for His servants. And this is the only religion that brings honor and glory, not temporary glory, but that which sustains forever, in this world and also in the eternal life to come after. So, Dunya (worldly life) seeking mothers may seek a position for their children in this world which appears to be more sustainable in their eyes, while this world is not sustainable itself, whereas they should have pursued something in their children, which is truly sustainable in every sense. So, the upbringing of children should be oriented towards the great esteem of striving for the establishment of the religion (Islam). And this is what nobility means. Verily, no noble nation is possible without mothers perceiving this very concept of nobility. If I am not wrong then you will see some bizarre behavior by the people of the so-called civilized West of the time. There can be hardly a moral filth in this world that doesn't exist in the wild West and in the animalistic East.

Emphasis on proper upbringing according to Quran and Sunnah

Islam is the only true religion that defines every aspect of the ideal way of living. Not a single aspect of life is left, but it is redefined in the truly Islamic sense, to the extent that the Companions of Prophet Muhammad ﷺ addressed even the insubstantial matters through Quran and Sunnah, as Anas bin Malik reported, the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said:

“Let one of you ask his Lord for his needs, all of them, even for a shoestring when his breaks.” [Sunan al-Tirmidhi: 3973]

Similarly, the issue of educating the society and bringing up the children, through embedding good qualities and traits in them, is also addressed in the Quran and the Sunnah. And Allah Azzawajjal says:

{There has certainly been for you in the Messenger of Allah an excellent pattern for anyone whose hope is Allah and the Last Day, and [who] remembers Allah often} [Quran, 33:21] So, nothing could be a better example than the life of Prophet Muhammad ﷺ for understanding how children should be fostered today for ensuring a glorious tomorrow. And the emphasis on proper fostering of children in Islamic manner can also be understood from this verse: {O you have believed, save yourself and your family from Hell fire} [At-Tahrim: 6]

Children are soft and sensitive by nature, so with kindness they should be treated, as it is what we learn from the manner of Prophet ﷺ. ‘Aishah (ra) said: The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: “Verily, Allah loves kindness in all things.” [Sahih al-Bukhari: 6024]

And narrated by Jarir (ra) that the Prophet ﷺ said: “Whoever is deprived of kindness is deprived of goodness.” And in another narration, he ﷺ also said: “There is no kindness in a thing but it adorns it, and it is not taken away from a thing but it makes it defective.”

And the child psychologists also admit that children need care, attention, and kindness so that their personalities are shaped in a proper manner. So, children should be affectionate by nature, but they should also be embedded with heroic traits so that they can harbor strong and resolute personality tomorrow, and they can be able to bear the burden of Jihad fi Sabillillah and learn how to have patience in this glorious path of Allah. So, apart from embedding compassion, love, and softness, another lesson that we learn from Sunnah is to embed manly qualities in the children and adolescents so that they become merciless and uncompromising against the enemies of Allah in tomorrow's battlefield, and they may learn arts of war and their minds get prepared for understanding the battle dynamics when they grow up. So, while fostering our children, we should be careful that they don't become too dependent on ease, comforts, and virtual world, and they should harbor a strong aversion to the disbelievers, the enemies of Allah. They should be kept as close as possible to the reality and the practical world.

Although, it is not for the children to participate in war, but their young minds should be so prepared that they may become battle hardened in future. In short, mothers of the Ummah should be preparing their children so that they harbor a wonderful combination of softness with the believers and at the same time, immense harshness against the disbelievers. On the occasion of Badr, two young boys entered the battle field and asked Abdur bin Awf (ra) about Abu Jahl. Narrated by 'Abdur Rahman ibn 'Awf: While I was standing in the row on the day of Badr, I looked to my right and my left and saw two young Ansari boys, and I wished I had companions stronger than them. One of them called my attention saying 'O Uncle! Do you know Abu Jahl?' I said 'Yes, what do you want from him, O my nephew?'

He said 'I have been informed that he ridicules Rasulullah ﷺ. By Him in Whose Hands my life is, if I see him, then my body will not leave his body till either of us meet his fate.' I was astonished at that statement. Then the other boy called my attention saying the same as the other had said. After a while I saw Abu Jahl walking amongst the people. I said (to the boys) 'Look! This is the man you asked me about.’ So, both of them attacked him with their swords and struck him to death and returned to Rasulullah ﷺ to inform him of that. Rasulullah ﷺ asked ‘Which of you has killed him?’ Each of them said ‘I have killed him.’ Rasulullah ﷺ asked ‘Have you cleaned your swords?’ They said ‘No.’ He then looked at their swords and said ‘No doubt, you both have killed him and the spoils of the deceased will be given to Mu’adh ibn ‘Amr ibnul Jamuh.’

The two boys were Mu’adh ibn ‘Afra and Mu’adh ibn ‘Amr ibnul Jamuh.

So, we also need to bring up our children in a manner so that they may take revenge on the oppressors, although the disbelievers dislike it. Our beloved Prophet ﷺ also emphasized on shaping young minds with distinctive character so that they may play the role leadership of the Ummah in future. In battle of Tabuk, he ﷺ chosen Sayyidina Usama bin Zayd (ra) as the commander of the Muslims for his intelligence, piety, and bravery. And that army included, under his leadership, noble Companions like Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddiq (ra) and Hazrat Umar bin Khattab (ra). And Umar al-

Farooq (ra) used to greet him, “My Commander.” Usama bin Zayd (ra) had great parents and enjoyed his upbringing in the companionship of great Sahaba, which molded his personality to be become a great leader of the Ummah. And incidents of contribution of the youth to the religion were also described in several places in the Holy Quran, like the story of Dawood, ‘Alayhis Salam. Allah the Exalted says:

{So, they defeated them by the permission of Allah, and Dawood killed Jaloot, and Allah gave him the kingship and prophethood, and taught him from that which He willed} [Al-Baqarah: 251]

When Dawood, ‘Alayhis Salam, was just a boy, he killed the mighty ruler Jaloot by shooting a stone with his sling. And there is story of supporting the Islam by a young boy who stood firm alone upon Tawheed (monotheism) against the merciless Taghut of his time, setting a brilliant example of sacrifice for such noble cause, as mentioned in the Surah Al-Burooj of the Holy Quran. Therefore, the teaching of Quran and Sunnah is that the mothers of this Ummah should also prepare their sons in a such a way that they assist the Din when they grow up.

Contribution of mother in nation building

In the history, we find many stories of mothers playing significant role of laying the foundation for superior nations. During the time of Prophet Muhammad ﷺ, the nobles of Quraysh tribe would entrust new born babies to Bedouin women who would suckle them apart from their mothers far away from urban areas in deserts, and therein those babies would be brought up for some years in the fresh and open environment of the desert, so that the quality of eloquent speech is developed in them, and they become healthy and strong. Hence, noteworthy was the patience of the Quraysh mothers despite their separation from their newborn babies for the sake of their proper physiological upbringing. Is it possible for a typical mother of the day to bear such heavy burden of being departed from her new born child like this? And we also have the Quranic incident of patience of the mother of Musa, ‘Alayhis Salam, when she was departed from her new born son (Musa), as she was instructed by Allah Azzawajjal; she put her son in a wicker basket and set him adrift on the river Nile, for saving him from the barbarous claws of Firawun, relying on Allah Almighty Allah. The Almighty says:

{And We inspired to the mother of Musa, “Suckle him; but when you fear for him, cast him into the river and do not fear and do not grieve. Indeed, We will return him to you and will make him [one] of the messengers.”} [Al-Qasass: 7]

And later it became history that Prophet Musa, ‘Alayhis Salam, changed the course of the history by uprooting the tyrannical regime of Firawun and saving his nation from his oppression, with the help of Allah. So, we find the contribution of an honorable mother behind the orchestration such great revolution.

And even the disbelievers acknowledge the significance of mothers for building superior nations. Napoleon Bonaparte once said: “Give me an educated mother, I shall promise you the birth of a civilized, educated nation.” But due to disbelief in Allah the Almighty, he failed to realize that simply educated mothers, deprived of the ornament of Imaan, can’t suffice to bring about a civilized nation, for a nation can never be civilized through transgression against the Lord.

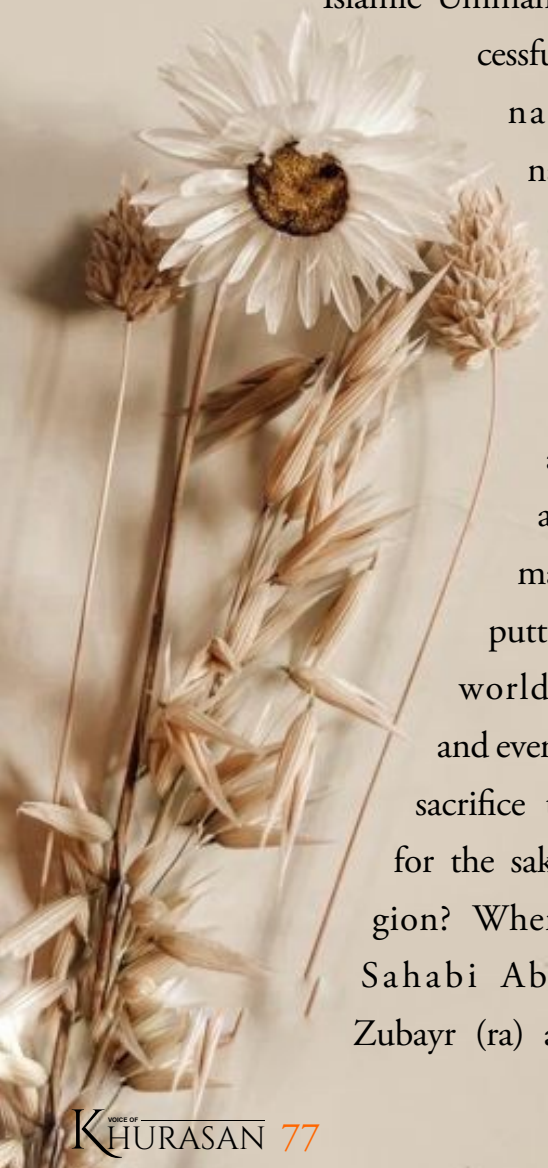

Zealous believing mothers behind the heroes of Islam in the history. Now, in this age of materialism, parents bring up their children for being brought up by them during their old ages. But in the glorious history of Islam, we find zealous mothers preferring sacrifice of their sons' lives in the way of Allah. Subhan Allah. We find successful mothers behind almost every hero of Islam throughout the history of this Ummah. There are numerous examples of believing mothers motivating their sons for making huge sacrifices in the path of Allah, for upholding the Word of Allah. So, how can such a believing nation (the Islamic Ummah) not be successful and dominant over the nations of the disbelievers, while the mothers of this Ummah are so passionate about the matters of Din, putting aside their worldly interests and even not daring to sacrifice their children for the sake of the religion? When prominent Sahabi Abdullah Ibn Zubayr (ra) and his army were besieged by the army of the tyrannical ruler Hajjaj bin Yousuf, and when most of his men were killed and only a handful of men from his relatives were remaining with him, he met his 100 years old blind mother and informed her about the situation he was going through. She said: "O my son! You are more knowledgeable regarding your circumstances than me. But I do say, if you know that you are on the Truth, and then die like your companions and if you want the Dunya, then you are the most wretched of people because you have wasted yourself and your companions. And how long are you going to live in this Dunya?" He (ra) said, "O my mother, I'm scared that if they kill me, then they will mutilate my body and they will hang me up." She (ra) said, "O my son! A slaughtered goat doesn't feel the pain when it is skinned!" And when she said this, he (ra) stood up and kissed her upon her forehead and he said, "I swear by Allah, this is my opinion! I have no desire to live in this Dunya for my aspiration is the life of the Hereafter and all my life I have stood up for truth but I wanted to know what is your opinion so that they may strengthen my opinion!" And then his mother said, "Come closer my son!" When he (ra) came closer to her, she embraced him and when she did so, she felt that he had some metal armour on his chest. She said, "O my son!

What is this? For people who want Shahadah don't wear this!"

He (ra) said, “O my mother! I only did this to comfort you!” She (ra) said, “My son, take it off.” Then she said, “O my son! Tie your belt so when you fall, your ‘awrah is not exposed!” “O My son! Fight with bravery for you are the son of Zubayr and the grandson of Abu Bakr, and your grandmother was Safiyyah.”

Subhan Allah. Such were the great mothers who laid foundation for the early generations of the Ummah.

To sum up, at this difficult time of the Ummah, we need such parents, especially mothers, who would prefer the victory of the religion over pursuance of worldly interests for their children and educate their children accordingly. And such preference means preparing the next generation physically, militarily, psychologically, and intellectually for the upcoming Malhama and victory, be-cause we should also give preference to quality over quantity, since we are the best Ummah.

And our last prayer is all praise is due to Allah, the Lord the of the worlds.
